

THE CHINESE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG
Faculty of Law

| |
|---|
| The Jarvis & Kensington Prize for Trial Advocacy |
|---|

Regulations

Jarvis & Kensington (the “Donor”) will donate a prize to the Faculty of Law of The Chinese University of Hong Kong on an annual basis starting from the academic year 2012-13. The Regulations governing the award of the prize are as follows:

1. The prize will be known as “The Jarvis & Kensington Prize for Trial Advocacy”.
2. The prize shall be awarded to the student (the “Prize Recipient”) who achieves the highest overall mark in the Trial Advocacy course on the Postgraduate Certificate in Laws programme of the Faculty of Law on an annual basis starting from the academic year 2012-13.
3. The prize is in the form of a wig and gown to the Prize Recipient if he/she intends to go to the Bar or of a gown if he/she intends to become a solicitor.
4. In the event that more than one student achieves the highest overall mark in the Trial Advocacy course, the prize will go to the student who achieves the higher mark in the final trial held at the end of the course.
5. Each year, the Dean of the Faculty of Law will nominate the Prize Recipient whose particulars shall be sent to the Donor for confirmation.
6. The Prize Recipient will be informed of the award by the Faculty and the prize will be presented formally at the Postgraduate Orientation Day or other suitable occasion organized by the Faculty.
7. The Donor shall notify the University prior to the beginning of any academic year if the arrangements set out in these Regulations are to be discontinued in that academic year.

Feb 2013