

Faculty of Law – The Chinese University of Hong Kong Master of Laws Scholarship Scheme 2011

(1) Introduction

The Faculty of Law of The Chinese University of Hong Kong (“CUHK”) proudly announces the introduction of the “CUHK Faculty of Law Master of Laws Scholarship Scheme 2011” (the “Scheme”).

(2) Details of the Scheme

Each year, the Faculty of Law (the “Faculty”) at CUHK will seek to assist students from around the world to join the Faculty’s Master of Laws programmes through the award of scholarships. Different countries/areas are supported on a rotational basis. For the academic year 2011-2012, two scholarships will be offered to non-local applicants from the following areas:

- Europe
- India
- North America (US and Canada)

Successful candidates will be awarded a scholarship worth HK$176,000, covering the basic tuition fee of HK$96,000 and a maintenance stipend of HK$80,000.

(3) Eligibility and Selection Criteria

Candidates are eligible to apply for the scholarship if they

- have the nationality of one of the countries located in one of the areas mentioned under (2) above;
- are not residents of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region;
- have applied for admission to one of the CUHK full-time LLM programmes (for information about normal application procedures, please visit: www.cuhk.edu.hk/gss);
- have satisfied the prescribed CUHK LLM minimum admission requirements;
- have achieved i) a result of Band 7.0 or better in the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) or ii) a result of 580 (Paper Based Test), or 237 (Computer Based Test), or 92 (Internet Based Test) or better in the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or iii) have obtained a bachelor's degree which is conducted and assessed in English;
- are not in receipt of any other scholarship or award for the academic year 2011-2012 (to be confirmed by the candidate in writing).

Scholarships will be awarded to successful candidates based on academic merit. The Faculty's decision in respect of the award of scholarships will be final and no correspondence will be entered into with unsuccessful candidates regarding the award of scholarships. The results will be announced as soon as all the applications have been considered by the Faculty. The award of the scholarships will be confirmed only upon the successful candidates' admittance to one of the Faculty's LLM programmes and commencement of their studies. The Faculty reserves the right to decline to make an award in the event that no candidate is considered deserving of a scholarship.

(4) How to apply

An application form can be obtained on-line at www.law.cuhk.edu.hk. Completed application forms together with the required documents mentioned therein shall be received by the Faculty of Law, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Shatin, New Territories, Hong Kong on or before 8 April 2011. Only complete applications will be considered by the Faculty. The Faculty may decide to invite selected candidates to participate in telephone interviews.

December 2010