Mayer Brown JSM Prize in Jurisprudence
(formerly known as JSM Prize in Jurisprudence)

Regulations

Mayer Brown JSM (formerly known as JSM) will donate one prize to The Chinese University of Hong Kong on an annual basis starting from the academic year 2006-2007. Regulations governing the award of the prize are detailed below:

1. The prize was formerly known as “JSM in Jurisprudence” (originally named “Johnson Stokes & Master Prize in Jurisprudence” in 2006-07). As JSM has been renamed as Mayer Brown JSM with effective from 1 May 2010, the prize was renamed as "Mayer Brown JSM Prize in Jurisprudence” thereafter.

2. The prize shall be awarded to a full-time or part-time student of the Faculty of Law studying Jurisprudence in the JD Course from the year 2006-2007 onwards on the basis of academic merit.

3. The recipient needs not be a Hong Kong permanent resident.

4. In any year when no candidate is considered to have reached a standard worthy of the prize, no prize shall be made.

5. The amount of the prize is: HK$5,000.

6. The donor shall give the University twelve months notice if the prize is to cease.

7. Each year, the Dean of the Faculty of Law will be invited to nominate one suitable candidate for the prize, and particulars of the candidate should be sent to the Secretary of the Senate Committee on University Scholarships for onward transmission to the donor for information.

9 August 2010 (Revised)