The Henry Wai Prizes for Litigation and Professional Ethics

Regulations

Henry Wai ("the Donor") will donate 3 prizes to the Faculty of Law of The Chinese University of Hong Kong ("the Faculty") in each academic year with effect from 2008-09. Regulations governing the award of the prizes are detailed below:

1. The prizes will be known as "The Henry Wai Prizes for Litigation and Professional Ethics".

2. The prizes shall be awarded to the students (the "Prize Recipients") who achieve the highest, the second highest and the third highest combined overall mark in the 3 courses Civil Litigation Practice, Criminal Litigation Practice and Professional Practice ("the 3 Courses") on the Postgraduate Certificate in Laws programme of the Faculty of Law.

3. In the event that more than one student achieves the highest, second highest and/or third highest overall mark in the 3 Courses, the prize(s) shall be shared and the amount of the prize(s) shall be divided equally among those students.

4. The amounts of the prizes are:

   4.1 First Prize: HK$30,000 to the student(s) who achieve(s) the highest mark in the 3 Courses

   4.2 Second Prize: HK$10,000 to the student(s) who achieve(s) the second highest mark in the 3 Courses

   4.3 Third Prize: HK$5,000 to the student(s) who achieve(s) the third highest mark in the 3 Courses

5. Each year, the Dean of the Faculty of Law will nominate the Prize Recipients whose particulars shall be sent to the Donor for confirmation.

6. The Prize Recipients will be informed by the Faculty and the prizes will be presented formally at a Presentation Ceremony or other suitable occasion organized by the Faculty.

7. The Donor shall notify the University prior to the beginning of any academic year if arrangements set out in these regulations shall be discontinued or varied in that academic year.
