Hogan Lovells ("the Donor") will donate a sum of $10,000 ("the Prize") to a student in the JD program at The Chinese University of Hong Kong in each academic year with effect from 2014-15. Regulations governing the award of the Prize are as follows:

1. The Prize will be known as “The Hogan Lovells JD Prize”.

2. A sum of $10,000 shall be awarded to a full-time JD student enrolled in Year 1 of the full time or Year 2 of the part-time Juris Doctor degree programme at the Faculty of Law.

3. Each year, by 31st January the Dean of the Faculty of Law will nominate suitable candidates based upon academic merit and individual applications for the Prize for consideration by the Donor.

4. Nominated candidates will be invited for interview with the Donor before 28th February following which the Faculty will be informed of the Donor’s choice.

5. The Donor will prepare a cheque as the Prize payment drawn in favour of The Chinese University of Hong Kong who will then transfer the Prize payment into the student’s and Prizewinner’s bank account.

6. The Donor reserves the right to not award the Prize after the selection process.

7. The Donor shall notify The Chinese University of Hong Kong prior to the beginning of each academic year if arrangements set out in these Regulations are to be discontinued.

February 2015