CAI Sijia
LLM in International Economic Law

"Studying in the LLM in International Economic Law Programme in CUHK was an important and absolutely right decision for me, which advanced my career as a lawyer handling foreign-related matters in mainland China. All of the professors were very nice and highly-qualified, who were always willing and patient to answer questions, helping me to understand the legal knowledge better. Meanwhile, the courses were so practical that they highly improved my critical thinking and my legal writing skill, enhancing me more professional in cross-border transaction. In a word, I felt lucky and glad to study in CUHK."

CEN Lin
LLM in International Economic Law

52

"Studying IEL in CUHK LAW is interesting and rewarding, both academically and practically.

When studying law, I bear two things in mind: Look beyond law when looking at law; look at the future in the eyes of history.

Law never stops and neither do I."

CHAN Foon Lok
Juris Doctor

81

"It was a very challenging semester due to COVID. Classes were moved to Zoom and we lost many great opportunities to network with the professors and other classmates. However, I also received a lot of help from the university. The technology team consistently provided the best supporting services. Most of the cases and reference materials were still accessible on e-database. Even the online exams were held for social distancing. It was difficult but also memorable. Fortunately I still have one more year at CUHK - hopefully everything will be back to the normal soon."

CHAN Lai Ching
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

86

"On knowing my personal development needs, I choose CUHK LAW to link my interest to study in which this Programme is dedicated to enlightening me on energy security and sustainability, particularly in Hong Kong, from a legal perspective. Nonetheless, it is really challenging to balance work, study and life, especially in times of COVID-19. As such, planning ahead and setting study goals are key to success for which it can boost up my motivation and keep me on the right track. Not to mention, professors are all supportive who inspire me a lot in the course of my study."

CHAN Wing Tung
Juris Doctor

09

"Working hard to make my parents and grandparents proud."

CHAN Yik Tung
LLM in International Economic Law

31

"It was an unusual year of pandemic that we attended most of our lessons on Zoom. I felt difficult to cope with loneliness being an extrovert myself. However, this pandemic has given me the free time to rest and not to "think". I did not burn the midnight oil to study. On the contrary, I spent more time allowing my mind and my body to rest, and this perhaps led to a clearer mindset to comprehend the things I learned during the semester. Having the extra time to appreciate knowledge, I truly find the courses interesting."

CHEN Jiahui
LLM in Common Law

25

"I spend more than ten hours studying every day.

1) Before class: complete the reading and exercises assigned by the professor, and browse the slides for preview;

2) In class: listen to the lecture carefully, mark the key points while recording, and ask the teacher immediately if I encounter a problem;

3) After class: Before the final stage, I will collate notes with slides, mark the key cases and legal provisions. At the final review stage, I will combine the practice questions and previous year's examination questions to carry out two to three rounds of notes collation, and finally focus on review."

CHEN Yi-an
Juris Doctor

27

"I have enjoyed my journey at CUHK LAW. The faculty members are highly qualified and inspiring, and the Faculty has been extremely supportive during the pandemic. The learning experience has been rewarding and enriched further by a cohort of intelligent and friendly classmates."

CHEUNG Pok Man
Juris Doctor

57

"The COVID-19 pandemic has quickly transformed our world, including our learning modes and ways to interact with our teachers and classmates intellectually. CUHK LAW has provided various support to us, to tide us over the countless challenges amidst the new normal, with her flexible use of technology and willingness to make special arrangements with due regard to our actual needs. Without the painstaking efforts of the teachers and admin team, pursuing this demanding yet rewarding degree amidst the pandemic would be unmanageable."

CHIU Chi Kan
Juris Doctor

26

"Reading Law at CUHK is one of the best decisions I have ever made. It has been a demanding yet intellectually stimulating experience. Despite the fact that most of the classes are conducted online, I am impressed by the passionate teaching staff who always engage us with in-depth discussions and are readily available to support us. The all-rounded career support also helped me in getting myself ready for the job market. Anyhow, you will not regret joining CUHK LAW where you will meet brilliant professors and classmates who will become your friends for life."

CHIU Tin Wai Peony
Juris Doctor

12

"The JD Programme is intellectually stimulating, thanks to the quality of the lecturers and the diverse background of students which provided me with different perspectives. The Programme is also designed to be interactive and therefore everyone has a chance to participate and contribute to the class. The Programme is therefore very effective in equipping students with essential lawyering skills to flourish in the challenging legal industry.

CUHK LAW also provides me with ample career support, such as the one-on-one careers consultation, which has greatly assisted my career planning and job application."

CHIU Wing Lam
Juris Doctor

76

"Switching from a humanities background to law is not easy, but I suppose anyone who got into the JD Programme felt the same. So, I remind myself every day that going to law school is just like overcoming a cultural shock: we are constantly learning, adapting, and second guessing about ourselves. But at the end of the day, there is only one way to overcome a cultural shock: prepare and plan for your success. And I would not have made it through the first semester without the warm support from my fellow colleagues and professors. I am very grateful."

CHOI Ka Ho
LLM in Common Law

32

"I have never thought of being one of the recipients, amid the keen competitions among many other students. I have completed my undergraduate degree in CUHK and this is one of the reasons why I would pursue the master's study at CUHK. The professors and teachers of CUHK are top-class scholars and therefore I could really be inspired by their lessons. The knowledge in LCL is very pragmatic and I found it readily applicable in daily life, albeit I am not working in a law firm. To conclude, I must thank all the professors I have encountered so far."

CHOU Hiu Lam
Juris Doctor

58

"Since I was young, I have always wanted to study law. I am very proud of myself in taking up the JD studies. While being a Part-time law student is demanding, the Faculty offers great support and allows a large degree of flexibility on curriculum planning. I enjoy every bit of my study experience so far. Not only does legal studies highly complement with my finance background, it also allows me to gain new perspectives in complex business situations. I am truly grateful for meeting and learning from all the great minds who share the same passion and vision in life."

CHOW Lok Ting
Bernard Ignatius

Juris Doctor

16

"I am truly honoured and humbled to graduate with the JD Gold Scholarship. CUHK LAW has given me an exceptional two years of unique opportunities, new friends and a paramount of fun.

I was initially apprehensive about the change of pace from life as a medical doctor to a Full-time law student, but CUHK has gone above and beyond to make me feel at home. From the legal knowledge acquired that would benefit my career goals, to the amazing friends and professors I have had the chance to learn from-I am very glad I embarked on my legal journey here."

DYDUCK Arnaud
Joseph Maurice

Juris Doctor

36

"The JD Programme at CUHK is not only a unique learning experience which has enriched my legal knowledge but it is also a true test of rigour, discipline and dedication. As a Part-time student I had to juggle my work commitments with the lectures, the self-readings, the tutorials. This balancing act, when adroitly conducted, brings a priceless sense of achievement that I find myself the honour to share with my fellow scholarship recipients. This testimonial would not be complete without a well-deserved praise to all my professors whose passion for the law encouraged me to push myself."

FU Wei
LLM in Common Law

56

"The time for the LLM study is short but it's fruitful.

Professors are very knowledgeable, most of them have rich experience in legal practice, and I do learn a lot from them. It's a pity that we can't meet face-to-face, but professors have always been trying to make the most of what we have to ensure we can interact with each other as much as what we could have done in a F-2-F class. What I like the most is that we don't have to be shy to share our ideas, as there is no right or wrong answer."

GUO Juno Wai Ying
Juris Doctor

74

"The JD Programme was a demanding but rewarding experience. Despite having to attend classes through Zoom instead of face-to-face for most of the Programme, the professors at CUHK were highly engaging and helped us make the most out of our learning experience. The Programme also offered a diverse range of electives for us to choose from. Not only are we equipped with the necessary knowledge and skills for the legal profession, but we were also introduced to the ethical and moral concerns revolving around the law that has stimulated many intellectual discussions between classmates coming from different disciplines."

HAO Wanchen
LLM in International Economic Law

19

"Studying at CUHK LAW is both academic and practical. The most important thing for me during my study is the construction of legal thinking, which is very challenging but exciting. The combination of inquiring and brainstorming not only allows me to learn basic legal knowledge, but also improves my ability to think independently. My experience at CUHK LAW gives me confidence and strength in the future career development. I am honored to have met a group of mentors here."

HO Che Hang Ernest
Juris Doctor

18

"I'm honoured to receive the JD Scholarship awarded by CUHK LAW.

It has been a long while since my first degree. Being a seasoned professional, I have almost forgotten the life as a student. Law is definitely a challenging topic. Going back to school was not an easy decision, with adjustments needed to balance work and family life.

Technology had helped to bridge the gap in 'learning with social-distancing', despite the reduced opportunity to meet, in-person, my young(er) and bright classmates.

I wish to thank my professors for their fun and enlightening classes."

HO Suet Li Regina
LLM in International Economic Law

11

"I am deeply honoured to have been awarded the LLM Scholarship by the Postgraduate Scholarship Committee. After many years in the Finance industry, I decided to pursue the LLM Programme as a personal learning challenge. I have found the lectures stimulating and taught in a practical manner by engaging professors who clearly are passionate about these topics. Abraham Lincoln once said: "Upon the subject of education,...,I can only view it as the most important subject that we as people can be engaged in" and I believe that the CUHK LLM is engagement well spent."

HONG Haojie
Juris Doctor

69

"Keep hungry! Stay foolish!"

IP Ping Ting Grace
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

05

"CUHK LLM Programme in Energy and Environmental Law is a master of laws degree like no other. One important learning objective is to understand the existing legal frameworks of climate law and investment law, and how their respective legal principles complement with each other to create synergies for the better implementation of climate change mitigation and adaption policies. My sincere gratitude to the law professors spending their valuable time to teach legal analysis skills, promptly answering students' questions online and offline, making extra efforts to prepare poll questions, arranging Zoom meetings to address students' concerns on assignment submission."

KO Ching Xavier
Juris Doctor

38

"Trained as a medical professional it has not been easy to step into a different discipline of study. Doing a part-time is another challenge, for most of us I believe, as the workload has never been light. However, I eventually noticed that all the hard work have not only brought me academic excellence, but also a new perspective seeing the law being more than legal principles and statutes - law is really about logical thinking and reasonings. Being able to appreciate such will surely benefit your work and other areas of life (and also make your study less dull)."

KONG Kin Wah Stephanie
Juris Doctor

89

"Studying at CUHK LAW is a challenging, yet rewarding and enjoyable experience. I have gained so much from the renowned and supportive faculty members, who are all enthusiastic to share their passion for the law.

I look forward to making the most of the programme with all my fellows and to making ourselves valuable assets to the legal sector."

KWOK Tsz Kwan
Juris Doctor

01

"It is never easy to pick up books again after joining the work industry for a few years. The CUHK JD Programme is very intense yet rewarding. Under the pandemic situation, it is challenging to enhance an interactive teaching and learning experience online. The experienced faculty members took the opportunity to engage with us way before the semester started and sought ways to adjust their teaching modes to make the tutorials more fruitful. Besides, studying with a group of bright students motivates me to strive for improvements."

LAM Chi Hin
Juris Doctor

59

“Hold on to your reason for studying law.”

LAW Sze Yeung
Juris Doctor

63

“CUHK LAW is supportive towards Part-time students like me who have to handle the workload of both legal study and Full-time work. The flexibility offered by the Faculty has allowed me to modify the length and sequence of my study such that it fits around my job. The Part-time JD Programme caters very well to students who would prefer to ease into legal study progressively by experiencing what the study of law and a potential legal career would be like. The friendly and professional environment at CUHK LAW also facilitates an enjoyable study and effective career planning for students.”

LEE Hin Shun
Juris Doctor

20

“My first semester at CUHK LAW has been a fruitful experience - studying the law has been an intellectually stimulating, challenging, yet thoroughly enjoyable process. Looking back, I am most delighted I decided to take the leap of faith to apply for CUHK JD Programme. I would like to thank the teaching staff who have been very supportive throughout the year despite the difficulties of mixed mode teaching.”

LEE Rachel Kwan Yee
Juris Doctor

35

“Despite the challenges in the past year, my time at the CUHK JD Programme has been extremely enriching. The Faculty has provided plenty of support and resources to ensure that our learning experience would not be hampered in any way. Although the JD Programme is rigorous, every course is highly intellectually stimulating. The professors are passionate and approachable. Though circumstances have not been ideal, professors have tried to create the most engaging learning atmosphere for us. I believe the extensive core and elective courses offered at CUHK will prepare me well for a career in law.”

LEE Wing Heng Brian
Juris Doctor

10

“Despite the absence of certain things we would normally associate with student life (physical classrooms, face-to-face contact), my first term at CUHK has been fantastic.

As someone who was previously against going down the track of law, I now can only say that I wish I had gone down this path sooner. For this, I owe my teachers, colleagues, and friends at CUHK an unpayable debt of gratitude for opening my eyes to the rich and fascinating world of law, and showing me that the spirit of the profession goes far beyond IRAC, past papers, and model answers.”

LEONG Chon U
Juris Doctor

02

“The JD Programme of CUHK LAW has strengthened my critical thinking skills and provided me with rigorous legal training. The curriculum here is inevitably challenging and demanding, yet I have benefited from the generous support of the teaching staff and the fruitful discussions with my fellow students. I believe joining CUHK LAW has been the right choice for me to develop all necessary skills for my future career in the legal profession.”

LI Yushan
LLM in Chinese Business Law

37

“It’s been great to have the opportunity to participate in the LLM Programme (CBL) at CUHK LAW. The CBL Programme gives an excellent opportunity to gain a new perspective on Chinese law. The knowledge I gained helped me embark on the legal comparative researches. What is more, professors try hard to make their subjects as practical as possible. The courses not just help students develop critical thinking skills and overall academic ability, but also provide insights into learning to think like a lawyer. Simultaneously, students can benefit from new skills relevant for the market today and tomorrow.”

MA Sum Yi Joyce
Juris Doctor

64

“Studying at the CUHK JD Programme has been an intellectually challenging and transformative experience. I find myself in a community full of bright colleagues and brilliant lecturers who are dedicated to sharing their knowledge and helping each and every student succeed in their individual pursuits. The courses I took are not only about legal principles and the relevant case law, but they also invite students to think critically and speak out on contemporary legal issues. As someone switching to law as a second career, the Law Student Careers Office has helped me plan ahead and apply for internships effectively.”

MA Vivian Yuen Ting
Juris Doctor

21

"It was a challenging yet rewarding experience to study law at CUHK. At the beginning of my first semester, I was overwhelmed by the intensive courses and felt insecure about how the Programme could be carried on under the COVID-19 pandemic. Fortunately, all the professors are supportive and are willing to spend additional time answering students' enquiries. I feel motivated to participate in class discussion and keep learning from mistakes. In the future, I hope I can maintain a positive mindset and be bold to surmount any challenges throughout the learning journey."

MA Zecen
LLM in Common Law

33

"It is certainly an honor for me to be awarded the scholarship for LLM in Common Law. The required courses in the Programme provide me with a fundamental, overall understanding of the legal system which is completely different from what I've learned previously. The wide range of complementary electives greatly satisfied my interests by offering interdisciplinary knowledge. I appreciate the opportunity to study at CUHK LAW where professors are passionate about sharing their knowledge. I would also like to express my sincere gratitude to all the people who have supported me along the way to make this happen."

NIE Tingting
LLM in Chinese Business Law

29

"I would like to share a little essay writing experience. First, choose a small topic and highlight your core opinion. There are word limits in each essay, so it is necessary to choose a small entry point and make your core opinions listed at the beginning of each paragraph. Second, make a substantial and sufficient argument. You need to consult multiple cases, data, academic opinions, etc, to support your core opinion. Last, pay attention to details. The typesetting with good graphics and clear layout would be more favored by professors."

QI Mengchen
LLM in International Economic Law

71

"The experience of studying at the Faculty of Law of the Chinese University of Hong Kong has been invaluable and memorable. I have met excellent professors and classmates here, and have gained a new perspective on the law and the thinking and theory behind it. At the same time, I have also realised the importance of adequate reading and careful listening to my coursework. All of this has led to a more mature and rational perception, and I believe that what I have gained here will help me in the future."

REN Yitong
LLM in Chinese Business Law

45

"CUHK LAW gave me a deeper understanding of the organizational structure of Chinese Business Law. Professors developed my ability to think independently, not just with absolute belief in books and authority, but with the courage to ask questions and reflect on them."

SHAO Han
Juris Doctor

06

"After almost two semesters as a JD candidate, I am surprised to see the growth in myself both academically and professionally. The past year has been a wild ride for me, and I am forever grateful to have finally settled here at CUHK LAW and found like-minded mentors and peers whom I regard as family."

TAI Hiu Tung
LLM in International Economic Law

03

"Pursuing LLM in International Economic Law at CUHK has been a rewarding journey. The study modules are largely skill-based, including problem-solving exercise and in-class discussion about legal issues which are practically relevant "on the job". As a candidate working in the financial sector, I find the Programme highly relevant and enlightening that it not only stimulates interests in the economic aspect of law but also offers insights into the geopolitics in transnational legal context. This Programme will certainly play an indispensable part in my next stage of career progression."

TANG Binqing
LLM in Chinese Business Law

62

"This is a special academic year, because of the COVID-19, we have to study and discuss online, which is a huge challenge for us. Meanwhile, it also brings some advantages. We can get detailed courseware and reading materials in advance on Blackboard for pre-class preview, which makes our classroom learning more focused and efficient. Furthermore, we can look back at the course video after class to find out the content that was not digested in time at class. Additionally, we can discuss with the professor by email, which will give us a new inspiration for the understanding of problems."

TAO Yanyan
LLM in Common Law
78

"Firstly, I want to thank all the professors and administrative staff in CUHK for their endeavor to ensure the progress of teaching under the special period of COVID-19. No matter the class is online or F2F, I enjoy the expertise, enthusiasm and dedication of the professors. Studying LLM in Common Law in CUHK has made me, as a lawyer in mainland China, fulfill my previous expectation to broaden my legal knowledge in common law. I think the most valuable thing is that the courses enlighten me on mastering a good way to learn a different legal system."

TONG Ngo Ting
LLM in Common Law
88

"It is my pleasure to have a chance to pursue the LLM in Common Law at CUHK LAW. The dedicated and supportive professors in CUHK LAW provided a fruitful and enjoyable study experience to us. Studying at CUHK LAW is definitely one of the best paths to acquire legal knowledge as well as explore the World of Common Law in Hong Kong."

TSANG Cheuk Yin
LLM in Common Law
30

"Aim high, fly higher."

TSANG Man Ho
Juris Doctor
24

"Being a Part-time JD student whilst on Full-time employment can definitely be described as a challenge. The pandemic raises the level of that challenge – it might sound daunting, but the willingness to help from everyone, staff and peers alike, has made the JD Programme very enjoyable so far. I never thought I would be as delighted as I am to be a university student again!"

TSE Ka Chai
Juris Doctor
08

"Notwithstanding the difficulties as we all have experienced over the past year, my personal study experience at CUHK has continued to be rewarding. Teaching activities have been severely disrupted, but my learning experience has been largely preserved thanks to the assistance and effort given by our considerate professors who would consult students on their teaching arrangements, for which I am immensely grateful. The Programme itself continues to offer a great variety of electives from which students, including myself, could tailor the legal education to their own needs and desire. Overall, the journey has never been so remarkable and impressive."

TSUI Kai Ho Herman
LLM in Common Law
53

"I am truly honoured to be a student of CUHK LAW. It is not easy to strike a balance between my work, personal life and studies, but I believe the time and effort worth it. I have learned a tremendous amount of legal knowledge and picked up useful skills for continuous learning. The curriculum has blended theories with practices so I can apply what I have learned in the context of work. I also have to say a big thank-you to the professors who have made it possible for us to learn efficiently even during these unusual times."

UN Teng Fong
Juris Doctor
14

"One of the key studying skills I shared last year was applying the legal knowledge I learnt to actual scenarios. I accidentally found another effective methods: encouraging my classmates to ask me questions. My classmates can often think of problems I have never thought of, or those I am not familiar with. By resolving these questions together, not only can I help others, but also restore issues I have neglected back to my consciousness, and therefore help to enhance my study efficiency."

WANG Siqi
Juris Doctor
17

"CUHK LAW has provided a great opportunity for me to study law in a part-time mode. It has allowed me to explore my interests in law while having a Full-time job. I have gained professional knowledge in different aspects of legal study and broad exposure to legal industry. This has encouraged me to pursue a second career in law."

WANG Xiaochang
LLM in International Economic Law
70

"The study experience in CUHK LAW is so great! Even in the Zoom teaching, our professors' passionate teaching impressed me so much. It feels like sometimes our professors treat us like clients without professional background, because they present the information so clearly that we can easily digest, while sometimes our professors see us as legal talents, because they throw difficult questions to us to inspire our deep thinking. What's more, our classmates are ready to share and help each other. I feel so lucky to be one of our professors' students and proud to be one of CUHK LAW."

WONG Chi Chung Simon
LLM in Common Law

47

"Reading law in CUHK has been exciting and enjoyable.

As an airline pilot, studying law seems remote and unrelated, and of course nurturing a new-born makes it more difficult. But I am truly grateful to be part of CUHK LAW, for reading law has been meaningful.

Despite the pandemic prohibits us from attending classes in person, I am impressed by the professionalism, dedication and passion our professors have displayed in the course of teaching, even with no faces in Zoom.

Allow me to finish this short note by thanking all the teachers and staff members for their excellent work."

WONG Collin
Juris Doctor

48

"A meaningful journey on a personal development sense that I have paved for myself amid a year of chaos: As a previous finance major, never would I have seen myself to be in a law firm than in a bank.

It has been a rewarding and intriguing educational experience at CUHK. Most professors are friendly and inspiring, some of whom I wish to have had the chance to connect with better in-person.

Whatever the future holds in the world, I wish to maintain my increasing motivation for making further academic progress in JD."

WONG Hang Lam
LLM in Common Law

13

"Commencing postgraduate study in times of pandemic is challenging. But the quality teaching by the dedicated professors at CUHK LAW have made the time via Zoom well spent. Despite minimal face to face teaching, there are still great interactions and good learning atmosphere in the Zoom classes. Fingers crossed and wish us all a "back-to-normal" study time in the coming academic year."

WONG King Sam Samuel
LLM in International Economic Law

73

"Studying at CUHK LAW has been a challenge. It's been a challenge for the obvious reason it has been so to study at universities all around the world. It's also been a challenge because the course International Economic Law is a tough one. But it is because it is challenging that I found studying at CUHK LAW such a rewarding experience. As we approach the end of the second term, I feel as though I'm already better equipped to life in a professional setting, and more importantly, better equipped for life in general."

WONG Pui On
Juris Doctor

28

"Thank you CUHK LAW for giving me an intellectually stimulating and rewarding experience in discovering laws. Although the JD Programme is challenging with a hectic schedule and demanding syllabus, faculty members have been enthusiastic at delivering inspirational lectures and professional instructions, enabling us to grasp legal principles at ease. I am also grateful to my fellow brilliant classmates for discussing intricate issues together and creating an enjoyable learning environment. I have thoroughly enjoyed my first semester at CUHK LAW, and I am looking forward to the challenges ahead."

WONG Tai Ming
LLM in International Economic Law

83

"I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to CUHK and all teaching and administrative staff. I am so glad to be part of the CUHK LAW family!"

WONG Tze Wai

22

"CUHK LAW provides state-of-the-art teaching facilities, equipping us with competitive legal knowledge academically and practically. Professors here are resourceful and amicable, delivering lectures and tutorials of high quality. In addition to this difficult pandemic period, the Faculty has adopted an array of policies to ensure the students' health and to maintain the lecturing standard online. Studying a new subject is never easy, but the burden is lessened by the aid from the Faculty. I definitely recommend CUHK LAW if you want to commence a legal career!"

WONG Wing Ki Winky
Juris Doctor

68

"Starting the JD Programme off with Zoom classes is definitely a challenging yet unique experience for both students and tutors. However, I am grateful that our Faculty and professors have provided the best possible learning opportunities by making lectures more interactive and fostering interesting conversations and discussions online. Tutors are all friendly, supportive, and easily accessible.

Pursing law has been fruitful, and I also appreciate and recognize the importance of peer support. I am lucky to have an excellent study group that we can encourage and motivate each other to keep moving forward.

Thank you CUHK LAW and friends!"

I will select and combine my own learning programs, according to my own situation (such as time, course selection arrangement, etc.). After that, make changes according to the situation of the first one or two weeks and then stick to the plan. Thanks a lot!"

"The PCLL Programme was a crucial stepping stone that groomed me for the subsequent professional training as a trainee solicitor. By strengthening my legal concepts and equipping me with practical problem-solving, drafting and advocacy skills, it enabled me to stand out in handling future day-to-day challenges. The small-sized classes encouraged interaction and proactiveness. The professors were patient and provided constructive input. Not only did they fuel my interest in law, but also, as life mentors, guided my personal development beyond academics.

Even though classes were mostly conducted in Zoom due to COVID-19, both teaching and non-teaching staff at CUHK provided us with continuous support and made our PCLL experiences as meaningful as possible."

"First of all, thanks the Lee Hysan Foundation for its support in my study in CUHK LAW.

Reviewing term 1 study, I actually learnt a lot in CUHK LAW and will constantly reflect and improve my learning methods to do better. In my daily study, I would get up early to preview the readings and slides of the courses, which makes my study easier in class. After the class, summarizing knowledge with mind maps is very helpful for my memory. It is my brief study experience, through which I hope we can learn from each other and make progress together."
