"I think peer pressure is one of the impressive points from the high-quality education that CUHK LAW can provide. I spent time with students from different places with distinctive personalities, and I feel grateful to each professor for giving us opportunities to do group work. There is much more class participation than my undergraduate study period."

I learned how to get along well with people from different cultures, learned from the strengths of my classmates, discovered my weaknesses, and made up for my shortcomings to improve with everyone else."

CHAN Ernest Hopkins
Bachelor of Laws

05

"Studying at CUHK LAW is definitely a valuable and fruitful experience to me. Met some great friends along the journey and I hope that my experience will continue to be as memorable."

CHAN Ka Ho

"I once hesitated on pursuing postgraduate studies; now I am glad that I have taken the LLM programme at CUHK LAW. Having undergone the first semester here, I enjoy the fruitful lectures, excellent facilities as well as learning support. The courses are challenging but the zealous professors always welcome for questions. Although the classes go online at this moment, the faculty provides abundant support and helps our adaptation. I am looking forward to face-to-face classes again. May the classmates share similar views with me."

CHAN Renee

07

"The path towards pursuing a law degree would never be an easy one. CUHK LAW provides me with precious resources that have continued to help me overcome the obstacles in this academic journey. I am glad to have the privilege of being immersed in this professional environment and to be surrounded by knowledgeable professors. I am beyond grateful to be a part of CUHK LAW."

CHAN Wan Nok

"Studying at CUHK LAW has been an enjoyable experience for me. Switching from my business undergraduate background to legal studies is not an easy task. Given that the curriculum in JD Programme is challenging and demanding, the volatile pandemic situation has certainly posed different obstacles to us. The highly engaged teaching methods employed by my professors have compensated for the limitations of online teaching. Not only have I been equipped with knowledge for being a legal professional, but I have also been encouraged to think more about the ethical and moral concerns revolving around the law."

CHAU Oi Tin
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

11

"The LLM in Energy and Environmental Law Programme explores the current legal issues in energy and environmental development, both from the international and national perspectives. The learning experience is highly relevant to my corporate banking career, as the clients' business decisions are in many ways shaped by these evolving energy and environmental policies. It also inspires me to think about how banking sector could further contribute to energy transition and climate change mitigation."

CHEN Xiran
LLM in Chinese Business Law

12

"I benefited a lot from the professors and classmates of LLM in Chinese Business Law. I have experienced learning Chinese law in a different way and thinking, and I have also mastered some methods and techniques of writing essays that I did not master during my undergraduate studies. For example, the professors encouraged us to find topics that interested us through constant searching and to develop our own writing patterns by imitating the research methods and writing approaches in the papers they recommended."

CHEN Yixin
Juris Doctor

"Enrolling in the part-time JD at CUHK has so far been a challenging yet rewarding experience. The excellent teaching staff and engaging lectures at CUHK LAW have enriched my intellectual world in ways beyond imagination. I look forward to a wonderful rest of the scholarly journey."

CHEN Yunping
Juris Doctor

14

"I have always wanted to study law. The idea of a second career finally motivated me to pursue a part-time JD. The study has unlocked my remote working days with joy and inspirations from professors and classmates. Per aspera ad astra."

CHENG Chak Yan
LLM in Common Law

15

"Studying law was once a farfetched dream to me but now turns out to be an achievable goal. Albeit the mode of teaching has almost gone online given the COVID-19 outbreak, there has been no apparent disadvantage to the learning progress thanks to the professional teaching, the interactive class participation from fellows and the advanced technologies, save the opportunity to effectively build cross-expertise network that I presumed to be considered one of the core elements to go for postgraduate study."

CHEUNG Man Sze Alison
Juris Doctor

17

"When I embarked on my legal studies at CUHK LAW, my mind was beset with uncertainty as how to manage my study and work priorities. I had not envisioned that studying at CUHK LAW could be such a gratifying and transformative learning experience until the day I attended class. The courses are thought-provoking and intellectually stimulating. I have learnt to analyze situations from different perspectives and to defer intuitive conclusions until the context of the legislation and precedents are carefully scrutinized. I am truly inspired by the professors' dedication to instilling legal knowledge and encouraging lively and engaging discourses."

CHEUNG Pok Man
Juris Doctor

18

"This academic year marks the end of my journey through the JD programme. Looking back, I am so glad that I chose to do my JD at CUHK LAW. Here, the learned teachers always explain difficult legal concepts clearly and provide us with insightful advice; the wonderful admin team often make appropriate special arrangements that facilitate our studies; our classmates are willing to share their ideas and support each other when necessary. All these make this demanding JD journey more enjoyable and fruitful than I expected, amidst the unprecedented world-wide pandemic.

Thanks again CUHK LAW for this wonderful tour!"

CHEUNG Ying On
Bachelor of Laws

19

"Though it has only been my first year with CUHK LAW, my experience so far has been incredible. The professors at CUHK LAW are passionate about teaching and they do so in a way that is easily understood, even for first year students. Furthermore, the interactive tutorial sessions allow students to think and apply analytically the content covered, which I find very intellectually stimulating. Overall, CUHK LAW has provided me with a captivating experience thus far and I look forward to my second year here."

CHOI Ka Ho

I am truly grateful for meeting and learning from all the great classmates and professors who share the same passion and vision in life."

CHUI Chi Ching Bertha

28

"CUHK Juris Doctor programme offers more than legal training; it offers a chance to meet intelligent, like-minded individuals and gain access to various legal opportunities outside of the classroom. As a research assistant, student editor, and moot team member at CUHK, I have had the opportunity to develop my research, writing, and advocacy skills. These skills are imperative to developing a successful legal career, whether as a solicitor or barrister."

CHUNG Ho Yan

30

"It is definitely a wise decision for me to study LLM in International Economic Law at CUHK LAW after obtaining LLB degree from the UK, and the programme had no doubt provided a solid base for my future cross-border legal career. The eight courses I have chosen inspired me to evaluate various complicated legal problems from international and comparative views which are hardly offered by the LLB. Furthermore, countless opportunities to engage with my professors with impeccable teaching style and abundant legal resources provided by the faculty helped me immensely to be awarded the LLM Scholarship for Academic Excellence."

FENG Yixin
Juris Doctor

34

"Joining CUHK LAW has provided me with the best opportunity to explore my interest in law. During my JD study, I am grateful for the support and resources offered by professors, staffs and fellow students that helped me to overcome the obstacles in legal studies. "Bronze is the new gold! Let's Go!"

GAO Yang
Juris Doctor

37

"I must admit that CUHK LAW has presented me with many challenges, more than I have ever encountered. Here at CUHK, studying the law is the easy part. The way that this experience urges me to be persistent and independent in academics, to reconcile with myself, and to adapt to a changing world rewards me the most. As a current student, I am in no position to say that CUHK has made me an excellent legal practitioner, but it can afford people the ability to become one whenever they are determined to devote themselves to a career in law."

HAN Shuo
LLM in Chinese Business Law

38

"The academic atmosphere of our school is very tolerant, free, and law-abiding. I perceive that our professors have contributed great efforts and passion to classes, where we are encouraged to express our thoughts freely. I have learned the order of transactions among various business entities and practical skills in the capital market. More importantly, I get to know about the international legal and economic trading system. After studying at CUHK LAW, I should always keep a respectful and humble attitude towards the law and devote myself to becoming a professional but warm lawyer."

HE Feifan
LLM in International Economic Law

39

"I am very honoured to receive this award!

CUHK LAW is a place with a free and strong academic atmosphere, strong faculty and full of opportunities and challenges. This is why this past semester, I was able to freely choose and work towards courses that interested me, without any "grade friendly" criteria. Fortunately, my efforts have been rewarded. I am sure that CUHK LAW will give the same luck and good experience to all those who love law and come here to study!"

HE Shiyi
LLM in Chinese Business Law

"Studying the LLB programme in CUHK has been a wonderful experience for me. The diversity and the passion that I have experienced while studying the LLB programme and as an undergraduate student in CUHK was very exciting. It is a privilege to study the LLB programme with my colleagues as all of them are equally gifted and talented. They are all very passionate about the law too, so I am grateful that I met a lot of wonderful people that I can learn from. I am very excited to continue my journey in CUHK LAW!"

KE Danru
LLM in Common Law

46

"For the study in the first semester, I mainly focused on the course materials, including the lecture notes and the slides given by the professors, the textbooks, etc. Before the lectures, in order to have a big picture of the knowledge, I usually browsed these materials, especially the core cases. After the lectures, I organized my notes based on the recording of the lectures and course materials on a regular basis, usually twice a week. I tried to make the notes clear and well-organized so that I can review them efficiently."

KO Ching Xavier
Juris Doctor

47

"Trained as a medical professional it has not been easy to step into a completely different discipline of study. Doing a part-time is another challenge, for most of us I believe, as the workload has never been light. However, I eventually noticed that all these hard works have not only brought me academic excellence, but also a new perspective seeing the law being more than just legal principles and statutes - law is about logical thinking and reasonings. Being able to appreciate such will surely benefit your work and other areas of life."

KWAN Tsz Hei
LLM in Common Law

49

"CUHK LAW is an excellent law school that has provided me with an enjoyable environment to learn about law. Thank you for providing me with an intellectually stimulating and rewarding experience learning about laws at CUHK LAW. Although the path to becoming a lawyer is difficult, the Faculty has provided us with significant academic and career-related resources to assist us in overcoming them. I am truly honoured to be a student of CUHK LAW. I want to thank all of the professors and support staff for creating an interactive learning environment during this stressful time."

KWOK Shuk Ching
Juris Doctor

"It was not an easy decision to study law when you have a full-time occupation. Thanks to CUHK LAW, many of us can pursue law in a part-time mode. The JD programme allows us to study flexibly. More importantly, the learning experience is appealing to me. With support from CUHK, I decided to study in a full-time mode. And I would like to express my gratitude to colleagues and professors, who make this journey fabulous!"

KWOK Tsz Kwan
Juris Doctor

50

"Being a law student at CUHK is just the beginning of the path. I look forward to making the most of the programme and to preparing myself to the upcoming challenges."

LAU See Heng
LLM in Chinese Business Law

52

"After elected as Associate of HKCGI, I found that my knowledge in Chinese law was obviously insufficient for my daily work in corporate services industry, where Hong Kong is a bridge between business markets, and Chinese capital takes a more dominant role in Hong Kong's capital market than ever."

As a non-law degree holder, studying law used to be considered a daunting challenge for me. A semester flies by, what I learned in the LLM in Chinese Business Law is an important cornerstone to my day-to-day analysis of legal issues, which gives me motivation to continue my studies."

LEE Hin Shun
Juris Doctor

53

"The CUHK JD Programme provides a great opportunity for those looking to move into law as a second career. I am most grateful to CUHK's teaching staff, who provide great support to our learning and make reading the law enjoyable."

LEE Wing Heng Brian
Juris Doctor

55

"As the pandemic rages on, I still maintain that the JD remains a positive and rewarding experience. The faculty has made strides in their zoom teaching techniques, and has created a wonderful and dynamic (e?)place to learn and pursue a legal career. I am grateful for their effort and commitment, and for my classmates and friends, who have kept me grounded, motivated, and on my toes."

I've always believed that there are no easy classes here in the JD, but it is unquestionable that students will emerge supremely well equipped for any career that lies ahead, legal or otherwise."

LEONG Chon U
Juris Doctor

56

"The JD Programme of CUHK LAW has strengthened my critical thinking skills and provided me with rigorous legal training. The curriculum here is inevitably challenging and demanding, yet I have benefited from the generous support of the teaching staff and the fruitful discussions with my fellow colleagues. I believe joining CUHK LAW has been the right choice for me to develop all necessary skills for my future career in the legal profession."

LEUNG Ho Lun

"I am grateful to be awarded the CUHK LAW Admission Scholarship 2021-22. The teaching staff explain complex concepts in a beginner-friendly manner and address students' concerns during and after classes. My academic advisor is easy-going and supportive, while the administrative staff are helpful. The friends I have met here are talented and diligent, and I have learnt so much from them. All of the above have helped make studying law easier and more enjoyable. I look forward to three more pleasant years at CUHK LAW."

LEUNG Ho Yiu
Bachelor of Laws

57

"Studying in CUHK LAW is purely a great pleasure since the foundational courses are meticulously designed and carefully-wrought. Students are well equipped with researching and problem-solving skills which are essential when it comes to internships. People I met at CUHK help shape me as a caring and wholesome person, in particular the professors, who are always there to help. With heartwarming company from classmates and unfailing guidance from mentors, studying law becomes a joy."

LI Hanzheng
Juris Doctor

58

"“Two roads diverged in a wood, and I took the one less traveled by. And that has made all the difference.” This quote from <The Road Less Traveled> justified my decision to pursue a second career in the legal field following some years of professional experience. The learning experience of J.D. program has always been enjoyable with all professors' high-caliber teaching and peers' support at CUHK. For anyone considering pursuing a law degree, CUHK LAW is a definitely wise choice."

LI Jiawen
Juris Doctor

60

"After spending 4 years in CUHK as an undergraduate student, I am both surprised and grateful to have had the most rewarding time in the JD programme, learning with the best educators and most excellent fellow classmates. Studying law keeps reminding me to never stop learning and always be ready to embrace the next challenge. I am glad and proud to say that CUHK LAW has been so supportive along the way and I sincerely wish everyone safe and healthy and hope to see you soon in the near future!"

"It has been a fun and fruitful experience to study at CUHK LAW. I would like to express my gratitude to the experienced lecturers, faculty members, kind seniors, and talented peers who have always been inspiring me and supporting me along this journey. All the best, everyone."

LIN Yuxuan
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

64

“What I experienced at CUHK was a completely different mode of learning from what I had previously experienced. My professors were able to respect individual differences and were always patient in answering any questions we asked. During my studies, I have developed critical thinking and learnt to analyse issues from multiple perspectives. Before the postgraduate course, I worked as a lawyer for a while, and to my surprise, the LEL programme not only gave me theoretical knowledge, but was also very helpful in practice.”

LIN Zilei
LLM in International Economic Law

65

“When it comes to studying experience, we shall never underestimate the value of hard work. However, full participation and concentration in classes play an even more significant role in my study. Explicitly speaking, I always sit in the front of the classrooms, enabling my clear understanding of what the professors say. For me, careful listening is the first step to understanding the knowledge. Besides, active interactions with professors matter hugely. I never hesitate to raise questions or share thoughts that might be incorrect or naive in classes because it effectively examines whether I correctly understand everything.”

LIU Chengcheng
Bachelor of Laws

66

“Although it has just been my first year studying in CUHK, the experience has been truly rewarding. There were numerous challenges that occurred throughout the year, but I have always been encouraged to step outside of my comfort zone. I am surprised to see how much I've grown both academically and socially.”

LIU Yang
Juris Doctor

67

“Work hard, Play hard. Be ready to accept challenges, Be willing to take perfect imperfections.”

LO Tsz Ching Christy

68

“The JD programme is challenging, yet rewarding. The programme has granted me a valuable learning journey, equipping me with comprehensive legal knowledge. The courses are intellectually stimulating and the professors are supportive. Given the highly intensive and extensive structure of the programme, it has also given me a test of perseverance and dedication. Hard work is needed, but time-management skills are of the utmost importance to take on different responsibilities while managing the study load. All in all, I am grateful to be part of the JD programme and I am looking forward to the journey ahead.”

MENG Zixuan
LLM in Common Law

69

“Studying at CUHK LAW has been an exciting and enjoyable experience. The professors shared their knowledge with us in a structured manner according to the outline, and I enjoyed the lectures very much. During term 1 when the epidemic was not so serious, I went to the library every week with two of my friends. We discussed past papers together, did the tutorials, and discussed the cases in class. I love this kind of peer study. Finally, thanks to CUHK LAW for making me feel the charm of common law. This study experience is unforgettable in my life.”

NG Siu Ki
LLM in Chinese Business Law

70

“To start my first law study, I chose CUHK LAW. I fully understand the knowledge background difference between myself and JD graduates. Therefore, I scheduled a regular study time slot to get myself ready before the lecture. As a part-time student, I also need to make a balance between my work and study. Luckily, CUHK LAW offered us different types of assessments with various subjects, which can provide a better ground for us to manage our time and select the suitable knowledge to absorb.”

NG Wing Yan
LLM in International Economic Law

71

“Studying in the International Economic Law programme has been a very rewarding experience thus far. Despite the challenges caused by the pandemic, our professors continue to provide us with an intellectually stimulating and encouraging environment. I previously thought that a LLM would be very academic and theoretical, so I was pleasantly surprised to see how practical a lot of the material was. It's also incredibly interesting to see what I'm studying play out in the news, further cementing that legal studies don't exist in a silo and can be more applicable than ever!”

NG Yee Yan
Bachelor of Business Administration and Juris Doctor

72

“Studying at CUHK LAW has been an eye-opening experience. Because the courses are designed to be challenging, I am learning not only from my professors, but also from my fellow students everyday. The international and multicultural composition of each class invariably allows for more engaging discussions on comparative legal systems and contexts.

I look forward to entering the legal sector together with my brilliant cohort!”

SEE Pak Lok

"It was the first semester of studying Juris Doctor (part-time) at CUHK. Studying law is never an easy journey, not to mention having a full-time work meanwhile. In the coming semesters, I am going to persevere with the challenging but satisfying study. Thanks again to CUHK LAW for the scholarship."

SHAO Han

75

"After almost two years as a JD candidate at CUHK LAW, I am surprised to see the growth in myself both academically and professionally. The past year has been a wild ride, and I am forever grateful to have finally settled here at CUHK LAW and found like-minded mentors and peers whom I regard as family."

SMAJIC Tajra
LLM in International Economic Law

76

"Studying at CUHK has been a life-changing experience. Moving to Hong Kong allowed me to at assimilate with a new culture and a different way of life. Meeting and studying with people coming from different countries and cultures allowed me to broaden my views and changed the way I think and see the world. However, above all studying at CUHK made me feel hopeful and safe about my future in these challenging and unpredictable times. Now I am confident that with the education I obtained at CUHK I am ready to face challenges of a career in the legal field."

SUN Zeyu
LLM in International Economic Law

78

"During my study in CUHK LAW, I had access to legal knowledge that I had little knowledge of before, and for the first time. I had a close understanding of the subtlety of international economic law. Different from the civil law system, the Common law system pays more attention to the summary of cases. This is especially true in the field of economic law. I believe I will have an unforgettable and rewarding time in CUHK LAW."

TAN Jing
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

81

"I am extremely fortunate and honored to have received the scholarship from CUHK. I am grateful for all of my professors, and I intend to work harder in the future."

TANG Yuhan
Juris Doctor

82

"At first, I thought law school would be a daunting and exhausting experience. But my journey at the CUHK LAW suggested that I was overthinking. All the professors and staff members are so encouraging and supportive, and they are very willing to answer any academic or career-related questions. I also feel extremely fortunate to meet many friends from my JD cohort and LLM programmes. We had a fantastic camaraderie studying together, supporting each other, and hanging out in our spare time."

TANG Zhixin
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

83

"It's an honor to be awarded the scholarship at CUHK LAW. I think it's important to stay focused in the lesson. This is because the professors not only teach knowledge in class, but also share a lot of ideas for analyzing cases and learning methods. Therefore, it is important to have a good understanding of the lessons. When there is knowledge that I do not understand, I will use the break between classes to communicate with the professor timely. Professors are very nice and patient in helping me with my questions."

TRITEEYAPUTRANONTA Ratchapat
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

86

"Studying for the master's degree in Energy and Environmental Law at the CUHK is an excellent opportunity in my life. The academic environment here is supportive to an international student like me. According to well-structured courses and, also, generous professors, I have been thoroughly prepared, both in theoretical and practical perspectives, for my future career. "The new learning environment and the language made me suffer a lot on my way to school. Life is not a straight path, and only by overcoming these difficulties can I gain something. I mainly compensated for the lack of learning process in my classroom by thorough pre-study before class, looking up information and listening to the recording after class to review, and from the beginning to the end, without any interruption. I read all of the essential materials before the class and explain them to my friend, which is quite helpful for me to understand and remember them.
