

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W N Cheung Start-up Grant in Law & Tech Research at CUHK LAW

GUIDELINES

Introduction

1. The objectives of the Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W N Cheung Start-up Grant in Law & Tech Research at CUHK LAW (the Law & Tech Start-up Grant) are to promote research excellence in the area of Law & Technology at the Faculty of Law of The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK LAW), to add to the CUHK LAW faculty expertise in the area of Law & Technology and to support the development of Law & Technology knowledge and skills for the benefit of the legal professions in Hong Kong and the society as a whole.

Procedure

2. CUHK LAW will initiate a global recruitment initiative with the goal to appoint up to two outstanding scholars in the area of Law & Technology (the Law & Tech Recruitment Initiative). The invitations/advertisements of the position will make special reference to the Law & Tech Start-up Grant.
3. The Law & Tech Start-up Grant may be awarded to newly hired staff member(s) of CUHK LAW at the rank of Assistant, Associate or full Professor with a proven track record of outstanding research/great prospect of conducting outstanding research in the area of Law & Technology.
4. Subject to the confirmation by the donor, Mr. Joseph W N Cheung, the Law & Tech Start-up Grant may be awarded to CUHK LAW appointees who have successfully applied to CUHK LAW in response to the Law & Tech Recruitment Initiative. No separate application is required for the Law & Tech Start-up Grant.
5. The donor may invite the successful appointee(s) to join an online interview before confirming the Law & Tech Start-up Grant. The donor's confirmation of the recipient(s) of the Law & Tech Start-up Grant will be communicated to the appointee(s) by CUHK LAW.

6. CUHK LAW and/or the donor reserve the right not to award a Law & Tech Start-up Grant to any successful appointee(s). In particular, the Law & Tech Start-up Grant is subject to the availability of funding.

Law & Tech Start-up Grant

7. The Law & Tech Start-up Grant may be offered to one full Professor or up to two Assistant or Associate Professors.
8. The Law & Tech Start-up Grant carries the award of HK$500,000 (for full Professors) or HK$250,000 (for Assistant and Associate Professors). The recipient(s) will also be awarded a Law & Tech Start-up Grant certificate issued by CUHK LAW.
9. The Law & Tech Start-up Grant must be used by the recipient to support research activities in the area of Law & Technology. Upon a recipient's departure from CUHK LAW, any unspent balance of the award shall be credited to CUHK LAW.
