"My study experience in CUHK in the part-time JD programme has been fruitful. I have learned a lot from the excellent professors in this programme."

BALDOVINO
Stephen Crisostomo

LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

02

"I took the Master of Laws in Energy and Environmental Law at The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) with the goal of transitioning my legal practice from traditional criminal and civil litigation to the energy and environmental law field. By far, I can confidently say that the program has equipped me with all the appropriate knowledge and experience to resolve complex issues, both at the international and local level, relating to energy and environmental law. Saying that I made the right choice and took the best career route is an understatement of what CUHK has imparted to me."

CAI Jiatong
LLM in Legal History

"I have always been very grateful to be able to spend my LLM one-year study life at The Chinese University of Hong Kong with my classmates. I am very grateful to the professors specialising in legal history for their careful guidance, which has benefited me a lot."

CAI Xiancong
LLM in International Economic Law

03

"This year has been an incredibly enriching journey for me. I've thoroughly enjoyed immersing myself in the cultural diversity of Hong Kong and seizing the learning opportunities at CUHK LAW. Engaging with esteemed professors and peers has greatly contributed to my personal and academic growth. My time at CUHK LAW has truly been a real GAP YEAR in my life. I will forever cherish the moments spent in the library, as well as the gentle evening breeze by the seaside in Kennedy Town with my friends."

CHAN Chak Leung
LLM in Common Law

05

"After building a strong foundation in core international law concepts during the first year of study, the elective courses in the second year aligned perfectly with my interests in international investment and taxation. The skills and knowledge I acquired are directly applicable to my career development. Studying for an LLM in International Economic Law at CUHK has been an incredibly enriching experience."

CHAN Wai Shing
LLM in Common Law

07

"I am honored to receive the LLM Scholarship for Academic Excellence. As a part-time student, it has been a challenge to strike a balance between work and study. However, studying law in CUHK is a truly rewarding experience and I am so grateful to have met the kind and knowledgeable professors and lecturers in CUHK LAW. I have acquired invaluable legal knowledge from them and it is definitely a fruitful learning journey."

CHEN Beibei
Juris Doctor

08

"It's my honor to receive this award. I would like to express my gratitude to all my professors and classmates who supported me throughout my learning experience."

CHEN Jinyu
Juris Doctor

10

"The first semester of the JD programme brought an unprecedented experience. Faced with a wealth of challenging legal knowledge and exams, we could choose to fight alone or to form a study group. We might sit in the library to study all day or carve out time for a workout in the gym. Before exams, we could pull all-nighters or do nothing but sleep. The learning journey at CUHK LAW is not short-lived. With the help of outstanding faculty, what we need to do is find the most suitable lifestyle for ourselves, and then live and learn accordingly."

CHEN Shuo
LLM in Chinese Business Law

11

"I would like to think of my study life in CUHK LAW as a short but wonderful journey. It is important for us to achieve the goals and also to enjoy the process. In my own opinion, involving into the discussion of the courses and trying to form my own understanding of the academic problems has helped a lot in my study. It is also vital to treat every detail of assignments and exams carefully to get a good grade."

CHEN Siyuan
LLM in International Economic Law

12

"I am so happy to get the opportunity to study in CUHK LAW. Professors here are so knowledgeable and kind. After learning what the rules like, Professor Dicky Tsang encouraged us to think further about whether current rules can achieve fairness, if not, how can we improve. Professor Lim also encouraged us to be brave to communicate, and to share individual thinkings.

Also, classmates in IEL are so warm. We study together, discuss and cooperate a lot. I am so grateful to build friendships with them."

CHEN Yingran
Juris Doctor

13

“Receiving the JD Bronze Scholarship is a great honor, and I am thrilled to share my enriching experience at CUHK LAW. The diversity among classmates and teachers has been a cornerstone of my education, providing a tapestry of cultural and intellectual insights. The legal courses are comprehensive and meticulously structured, ensuring a deep and practical understanding of the law. A highlight has been exploring the dynamic field of AI-related law, a testament to CUHK’s commitment to contemporary legal challenges. This blend of diversity, academic rigor, and forward-thinking topics has made my study experience truly exceptional.”

CHENG Annette Ling See
LLM in Chinese Business Law

15

“At CUHK, I pursued a Master of Laws in Chinese Business, which was an intellectually enriching experience that allowed me to forge valuable relationships with professors and classmates. The program sparked my interest in tax law, unveiling its complexities and significance. My academic growth translated into practical skills that have directly enhanced my professional capabilities. It provided me with a solid understanding of the Chinese business market and equipped me with the knowledge to confidently navigate its legal intricacies. My studies at CUHK were pivotal, significantly enhancing my legal acumen and proving to be immensely beneficial for my career.”

CHENG Wai Yin
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

16

“I am truly grateful for the opportunity to study at CUHK LAW. The professors in my program are incredibly kind and patient, always willing to answer all of my questions. In addition, my fellow classmates are exceptionally nice, and we frequently engage in discussions after lectures. This collaborative atmosphere greatly aids in deepening my understanding of the topics covered in each session.”

CHENG Yang
Juris Doctor

17

“Move well, study well, play well, eat well, rest well (Akira Toriyama).”

CHEUNG Man Sze Alison
Juris Doctor

18

“Pursuing part-time legal studies at CUHK LAW has been an immensely rewarding experience. My original apprehension soon dissipated once engaged with the program. The dedicated professors have encouraged me to delve into complex legal concepts and diverse viewpoints, each lesson honing my critical thinking skills. The rigorous academic environment, and participating in vibrant discourse, are pivotal in broadening my legal analysis and perspectives. This experience has been transformative, not just in enhancing my academic abilities but in reshaping my worldview. I am committed to upholding the values and excellence the scholarship represents in my future endeavors in law and beyond.”

CHIN Ching
LLM in International Economic Law

21

“I can still remember the excitement when I received the notification of admission to the LLM programme at CUHK, and such excitement only increased as I embarked on this wonderful journey. The programme has offered me a great opportunity to meet with professionals who are practitioners with extensive experience and academics with in-depth knowledge. The knowledge and skill set acquired from the programme will effectively contribute to personal growth and career advancement. It has been a truly rewarding journey with happiness, constant learning, and continual improvement.”

CHIU Tin Yan Queenie
Juris Doctor

23

“Studying at CUHK LAW has been an enriching and transformative experience. The rigorous academic curriculum has provided me with a strong foundation in legal theory and practical skills. The professors are exceptional in providing both academic and real-world practical insights. This engaging learning atmosphere has taught me to approach legal issues with an open mind and creativity. The extensive resources and support available at CUHK LAW have helped me excel in my studies and pursue my career goals. I firmly believe that the JD Programme equips aspiring students with the core skills for entry to the legal profession.”

CHOI Howie
Juris Doctor

25

“The JD programme offers a stimulating academic experience that truly challenges the intellect. It effectively bridges the divide between my economic background and the intricacies of the business world. Despite its demanding nature, the course became immensely enjoyable and captivating thanks to the lecturers’ infectious enthusiasm for their respective areas of law.

I would like to express my heartfelt appreciation to the professors at CUHK for their unwavering dedication in creating an exceptional learning environment.”

CHOU Hiu Lam
Juris Doctor

26

“Studying law has always been on my to-do list. Indeed I promised myself after my finance degree that I would do a law degree someday. Taking up JD studies at CUHK is probably one of the best decisions I have ever made.

It is definitely not easy to balance work, study and mom's duties. The faculty offers great support and allows a large degree of flexibility on curriculum planning. It has been a rewarding journey and I enjoy every bit of my study experience so far. I am truly grateful for meeting and learning from devoted professors and classmates.”

CHOW Siu Hung
LLM in International Economic Law

27

“This is my first semester with CUHK LAW and I have enjoyed my study experience here. Inspiring lectures, knowledgeable professors and great peers forms a positive and engaging learning community. As a working professional, the Graduate Law Centre located in Central allows me to commute from work to class without significant difficulties. I learned more about the subject matter, developed appreciation to legal reasoning, embraced the importance of a critical mind and valued the attention to details. I also appreciate the technology support, co-curricular opportunities and library services offered by the CUHK.”

CHU Anyue
LLM in Chinese Business Law

28

“During my time in CUHK LAW, I've really learned a lot. Every teacher I've met is responsible and passionate. They never hesitate to help any students and always encourage us to express our thoughts freely during and after classes. I study the LLM in Chinese Business Law, from which I have learned a lot about Chinese business operation theoretically and practically from a global perspective. I am also happy to meet a lot of friends here. This study experience in CUHK LAW really encourages me to continue my study and practice in law.”

DI Xiaoya
LLM in International Economic Law

29

“I would describe my study experience at CUHK LAW as a wonderful and exciting journey. I am able to practise my critical thinking skills through exercises in lectures, discussions with peers, and advanced preparation of reading materials after class. The content provided by the professors is not only limited to laws, cases and academic views, but also provides guidance on how to apply them in practice. Therefore, I am glad to be an LLM student at CUHK LAW.”

E Chunshui
LLM in International Economic Law

31

“My study experience at CUHK LAW was fantastic, and I got lots of improvement here. First, I would want to express my gratitude to every professor, including Chin Leng Lim, Peter Rhodes, Dicky Tsang, and Shixue Hu. Each professor was more than happy to assist students and offer advice. Additionally, the course content involved lots of discussion and critical thinking, which is extremely different from my past learning experience. I felt motivated to reflect more deeply and express my opinion. Also, I have incredibly intelligent and diligent classmates here. They gave me a lot of support and bravery.”

FU Qianyao
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

32

“Studying at CUHK LAW was a remarkable experience. The curriculum of the Energy and Environmental Law Program was very enlightening, and the site visits were interesting, enabling us to gradually gain a clearer understanding and knowledge of this area. The professors were helpful and provided insightful suggestions on our questions. I could feel the passion of the professors for their field of study, and every case was “extremely interesting” in their eyes, which also deeply affected me. I will never forget these experiences in my life.”

GAO Jiaqi
LLM in Chinese Business Law

33

“My experience studying at The Chinese University of Hong Kong has given me a new perspective on learning the law. At the beginning of the graduate programme, I felt nervous when speaking in class because I was using another language to express my ideas. However, in reality, my way of thinking changed in the same way when learning and expressing in a non-native language. This has helped me to learn new things in a new light and to be more inspired and rewarded.”

GOU Yidan
Juris Doctor

34

“Switching from finance to pursuing a Juris Doctor programme has been a challenging but incredibly rewarding journey. The professors' engaging teaching styles and patience have greatly enhanced my learning experience at CUHK LAW. Moreover, my fellow students are supportive and friendly. I have learned a lot from them. I am looking forward to my future studies at CUHK LAW.”

GU Jindong
LLM in Chinese Business Law
35

“Studying at CUHK LAW, I had a flexible schedule for self-pursuit. In the daytime, I would apply what I had learned from courses to particular cases so that I could examine whether I had grasped the underlying rationale for basic rules. In the evening, I desired to learn new concepts based on a variety of insights. Everyone here had valuable perspectives and capabilities, which gave me abundant feedback on my weakness. Therefore, flexibility, feedback, and value were something I appreciated at CUHK LAW. Truly thanks to CUHK LAW.”

HO Che Hang Ernest
Juris Doctor
37

“My heartfelt gratitude to not only the Professors/Instructors who taught me within the last year, but also those whom I came across since I first enrolled in the JD programme. It was my honour to be one of your JD students in CUHK LAW.”

HUANG Chenghao
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law
39

“I really appreciate the top opportunities and chances provided by CUHK LAW, facilitating me to study and learn in such a good environment. I love the atmosphere of our law school that each one could express his/her own ideas and opinions and nobody will judge you only because you are different, and that is an impetus which sparks my curiosity and encourages me to think in my own way. More importantly, I am not afraid to speak out my thoughts.”

HUANG Shuoan
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

“Studying at the LEL Programme of CUHK LAW has been an enriching journey marked by rigorous academics and vibrant campus life. Delving deep into the legal intricacies of energy security, environmental protection, and sustainability challenges of the Asia-Pacific region has broadened my perspective. The faculty's expertise and the program's practical approach equipped me with invaluable skills for addressing real-world issues in energy investment, project finance, and climate change mitigation. I believe that the knowledge gained here will empower students to contribute meaningfully to the global pursuit of sustainable development.”

HUANG Tai
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law
40

“I have spent a very happy and joyful time at CUHK LAW, and I will remember it forever. Here, I have met knowledgeable professors, who are teachers as well as friends; I have met various kinds of classmates, who learn from each other; and most importantly, I have met a better version of myself.”

HUNG Wing Lok
Juris Doctor
42

“Studying at the CUHK LAW is very rewarding. It has been a privilege to discuss learning topics with many outstanding peers and teachers from all over the world. In particular, I benefit immensely from my classmates who have substantial WTO-related work experiences and unique legal training from the Netherlands. Professors are generous and helpful and their engaging lessons that have offered me new insights on several current issues. Lastly, CUHK LAW offers so many exciting workshops and seminars and I believe we have gained an in-depth understanding of international economic law.”

IP Tze Ho
LLM in Common Law
43

“Pursuing the LLM in Common Law has been a fulfilling journey for me. As a part-time student working in a non-legal field, I have acquired extensive legal knowledge and have also developed a systematic and logical approach in solving problems, which has proven to be very helpful in both my professional and personal life. I am so grateful for choosing this programme as my master's degree. Lastly, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to all professors for their guidance and teachings. Thank you CUHK LAW!”

JIANG Nan
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law
44

“CUHK LAW provides an important platform for me to study energy and environmental law. Although the legal business in this direction is relatively narrow compared with the popular financial law, it is undeniable that the importance of energy and environmental law is increasing, considering the growing awareness on environmental protection and clean technology. The lectures are scheduled very well in this programme, and the professors are all very kind. I will definitely cherish this period of experience in my future life.”

KWOK Hiu Tung Hilton
Juris Doctor

45

“Studying part-time whilst working full-time hasn't always been easy. However, I am thankful for our CUHK LAW professors' understanding, patience and dedication, and not to mention my study groupmates' support and encouragement. I always believe that a law degree does not only give us the knowledge to become a successful legal practitioner, but also equips us with the intellectual strength for any profession and even our daily lives. Studying law trains us to think critically, communicate clearly, and manage time effectively. I would definitely recommend the CUHK JD programme.”

LAM Chin Hei
LLM in International Economic Law

46

“Balancing study and work is not a piece of cake, but I always believe that nothing good comes easily. With well-structured contents in the IEL programme and patient guidance from professors, I have had a lot of inspirations in reading law. Law is constantly developing because of the rapidly changing global environment, whilst the world is continuously adjusting due to law. Studying law at CUHK is definitely a wonderful and rewarding experience that allows me equipping myself well to be a legal professional in the dynamic society.”

LAM Shun Fung
LLM in Common Law

“It is my pleasure having the opportunity to study a law programme at CUHK. Balancing my heavy workload occupation as a part-time student was no easy task, but CUHK offered a comfortable and enriching learning environment. As someone with a plain law background, every aspect of the course became fascinating and inspiring. The professors' researches were analytical and critical which greatly enhanced my understanding of the law. In summary, CUHK has provided me with some of the best knowledge and education I have ever received.”

LAU Ka Yu
Juris Doctor

49

“The JD programme has been an intellectually stimulating and rewarding experience for me. The professors and lecturers are experienced and passionate about legal education and the wide variety of courses ensure that students are well-equipped with relevant knowledge to embark on their legal careers. I am deeply grateful to all teachers and classmates for their encouragement and support.”

LAU Madison Tak Ying
Juris Doctor

51

“The most important thing I've learned throughout my time here is to have more faith in myself. The process becomes much more enjoyable when you remember to breathe! It's been great getting to meet such lovely people at CUHK and I'm so grateful for the support network I've found.”

LAW Wan Sze
Juris Doctor

54

“As someone without prior legal education, I am genuinely grateful for how CUHK LAW has transformed the seemingly daunting experience of studying law into an enlightening and fulfilling one. One of the most fascinating classes I have taken is Contract Law, which has provided me with a legal thinking framework. What I appreciate the most is that I can always find Professor Hall sitting outside the Legal Resources Centre, ready to discuss and clear any doubts I have, making this journey of studying law a lot smoother and more supportive.”

LEE Shing Hei
LLM in Common Law

56

“Studying at CUHK LAW as a part-time student especially alongside work commitments has presented its fair share of challenges, but it has also been incredibly rewarding and intellectually invigorating. The vibrant and dynamic learning environment, coupled with passionate and knowledgeable professors, have made the journey truly delightful.”

LEI Siyu
Juris Doctor

57

“If more of us valued food and cheer and song above hoarded gold, it would be a merrier world. — J.R.R Tolkien”

LEUNG Man Fung
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

58

“Studying at CUHK LAW has been an amazing experience for me. Pursuing an LLM in Energy and Environmental Law has equipped me with a comprehensive understanding of the complex legal framework governing the energy and environmental sectors. The program's distinguished faculty members provided me with exceptional legal knowledge, while the diverse student body facilitated thought-provoking conversation. Moreover, the program honed my language skills to effectively convey complex legal messages. Overall, I am grateful for this exceptional learning experience, which has prepared me well for my future career.”

LI Chung Yan Evelyn
LLM in Common Law

59

“It has been a fruitful and unforgettable journey along the 2-year LLM route. I am grateful for all the support and mentorship I got from the professors. Thank you for making the law course fun and interactive. Thank you for bringing the classes to life. Not only did I gain deeper understanding about the legal system and controversial issues, but also how I am able to apply the legal theories to real life situations. I have definitely enjoyed the course.”

LI Wang Kon Byron
LLM in International Economic Law

60

“This comprehensive education has shaped me into a well-rounded legal professional, equipped with both theoretical knowledge and practical skills. I am grateful for these truly enjoyable and invaluable experiences gained at CUHK LAW.”

LI Yang
Juris Doctor

61

“This academic year marks the end of my journey through the JD programme. Looking back, I am so glad that I chose to do my JD at CUHK LAW. I had the opportunity to meet my friends whom I appreciate so much and without whom I wouldn't have been able to get through the programme. I was also fortunate enough to attend classes of so many learned and passionate teachers who inspired me to explore my interests. Thank you CUHK LAW !”

LIAO Lok Sun Constance
Juris Doctor

62

“Two years in and still (hopefully) going strong! Every course has offered a delightful challenge that not only stimulated my addled brain after a long day at work, but has begun to unlock skills I never presumed to possess. Most importantly, my time at CUHK LAW has sparked my desire to achieve growth and to aim high – self-doubt be damned. It goes without saying that most of the credit should go towards the amazing professors I have had the pleasure of encountering, as their passionate teaching is one of my greatest motivators.”

LIN Luda
LLM in International Economic Law

63

“The Master of Laws in International Economic Law bridges the gap between international law and economics. The programme recognises that transnational boundaries of law are blurred in a modern global society. Likewise, it allows law students to study deeply how economics and law relate to and influence each other. It, therefore, gives students a well-rounded and sophisticated understanding of the current global legal and economic landscape. In addition, the programme gives students the tools to practice law because its focus is not solely academic and theoretical but also practical. More importantly, studying in Hong Kong provides a cosmopolitan and enriching experience.”

LING Haojing
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

65

“Studying at the LLM in Energy and Environmental Law at CUHK is a highly enriching experience for me. The courses are well-structured, and the professors are all experts in the energy and environmental law fields. During the first semester, I have read all the assigned reading materials provided by the professors, which were useful in pre-class preparation and post-class consolidation of knowledge based on each lecture. This comprehensive approach enhanced my comprehension and critical thinking regarding energy security and environmental protection and has equipped me with knowledge and confidence to work in the energy and environmental field in the future.”

LO Wing Sum
Bachelor of Business Administration &
Juris Doctor

69

“My experience at CUHK LAW has been exceptionally rich and rewarding. The programme has provided a variety of cutting-edge courses that explore emerging topics reforming the legal field, including matters related to blockchains, cryptocurrencies and legal technologies. Additionally, the faculty are simply outstanding – abundantly knowledgeable, deeply passionate about their subjects, and always willing to offer guidance. Their interactive teaching styles help cement even the most complex legal concepts in my mind. I feel honoured to have learned from such gifted professors during my time here.”

LONG Shiqing
Juris Doctor

70

“Studying at CUHK LAW is a rewarding experience.

CUHK LAW offers a comprehensive package of basic courses in the common law world. I have benefited from our great teachers' sound knowledge in their teaching fields. As a fresh student in the field of law, I continue to be inspired by the interactive class settings. Meaningful discussions have unveiled the rationale of various fields of law to us.

I have also been exceptionally grateful for the rich diversity of peer students from top universities worldwide. I would always appreciate their support during this experience.”

LU Jiazheng
Juris Doctor

71

“Studying law at CUHK is an enriching experience. The curriculum is rigorous, yet stimulating, with engaging discussions and practical insights. The faculty's expertise and supportive environment foster deep learning and critical thinking. I believe that my study in CUHK LAW will provide me a solid foundation for a successful legal career.”

LU Wei
LLM in Common Law

72

“The LLM program of Common Law helped me have a deeper understanding of common law system. It also enhanced my understanding of HK jurisdiction by taking courses such as contract law, employment law and tort law, all of which are interesting and pragmatic. Undoubtedly, the one-year-study in CUHK has been a rewarding experience for me.”

MIKKOLA Diana
Bachelor of Laws & Juris Doctor

74

“I believe that the quality of the teaching at CUHK LAW is the best I have ever experienced. I am extremely grateful and have huge respect to all the professors on the JD programme as they have not only helped me to become a great law student but also truly prepared me to be a great lawyer in the future. The effort that they put into their teaching and the students, is what has made studying here so fun and motivating for me.

I would love to go back in time and experience the JD programme all over again.”

PANG Sandy Hoi Yan
Juris Doctor

“I am grateful for the mentorship and guidance from my professors, the friendships I made through the programme, and my family. Their support has made all the difference and my legal journey would simply not be the same without them.”

QIAO Yuanwu
Juris Doctor

76

“CUHK offers me a strong platform to develop both my legal skills and my ability to strive under pressure and challenges. The Faculty mixes solid legal training with fruitful legal competition experience and career consultation. Great place to meet mentors and learn from your peers!”

RUAN Hongguo
LLM in International Economic Law

77

“My study experience at CUHK LAW is fruitful and exciting. At CUHK, I got the chance to know the real practitioners like Peter in IBT1 and Dicky in CICL. Peter gave us world news each class and encouraged us to read the news because legal practitioners need to have business sense. Dicky's class was full of contents and tutorials and he held coffee chat each week to get us together. I really appreciate all the efforts made by the professors and faculty of CUHK LAW.”

"The first semester at law school has been transformative. The professors were very passionate and their teaching has been truly inspiring. Engaging in thought-provoking discussions during class has deepened my understanding of fundamental legal principles and their practical applications. The supportive learning environment provided by CUHK fosters collaboration and growth among peers, laying a strong foundation as I enter the dynamic realm of law. I am excited to further expand my legal knowledge and skills, preparing myself for a well-rounded and impactful legal career that leverages both my MBA background and the depth of understanding gained through the JD programme."

SUN Hoi Yan

"Studying part-time JD is not easy, in fact it is one of the biggest decisions I've ever made. Looking at my classmates who are also committed to attending lectures after work and studying hard, I know that I am not alone in this learning journey. I had a very fruitful semester last year and I would like to thank my husband and my parents for their unrequited support which means everything to me."

"I am grateful to have been awarded a scholarship during my time at CUHK LAW. I would especially like to express my appreciation for the efforts made by the educators at CUHK LAW. Their profound knowledge, passion for law, and dedication to the students were truly remarkable. I am fortunate to have had the opportunity to learn from them at CUHK."

VERSTER Niels Jan
LLM in International Economic Law

92

"Studying law at CUHK has so far been both interesting and a lot of fun. The professors are incredibly kind and always open to further discussing particular points of interest and even future career opportunities. From my previous degrees I got to understand law from a theoretical point of view, but through the LLM in International Economic Law I am now also starting to get a better grasp on the practical applicability of law. I can wholeheartedly say it was a great decision to move to Hong Kong to participate in this program."

WANG Hua
LLM in Common Law

93

"As a student with an engineering background, attending the LLM programme at this world-class law school has been an extraordinary experience. Studying common law in a global financial and economic center, and a common law jurisdiction within the civil law state is a fascinating opportunity to appreciate the convergence of diverse legal traditions. I am also very grateful to all my professors and mentors for guiding me throughout this journey, many of them are leading academics and practitioners who are full of passion for law and devote their hearts and souls to sharing their experiences with students."

WANG Xueting
LLM in Common Law

94

“Studying at CUHK LAW has been an incredible journey, where I've met outstanding professors and forged lifelong friendships. Initially unsure about pursuing law, engaging lectures and discussions ignited a profound passion in me for the field. Exploring common law history, understanding contract law, delving into legal issues of antiques and art, and reevaluating Chinese tax law broadened my horizons. Despite differences between legal systems, shared aspirations for a better life unite individuals. Law is pivotal in shaping a brighter society. I'm immensely grateful for the transformative experience of studying at CUHK LAW.”

“I am so grateful for the amazing opportunity to study at The Chinese University of Hong Kong! The professors are absolutely fantastic, not only discussing legal provisions and cases but also the socio-economic implications of the law. This has allowed me to gain a deeper understanding of the law and the worldview that underpins it. I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to the professors I had the pleasure of meeting, particularly Dicky, Professor Lim, and Jingyi.”

WONG Christopher Alexander

“CUHK LAW provides me with a completely different study experience than what I've ever had before. First of all, it requires me to travel to Admiralty, which can be a very enjoyable commute, having to rush onto the East Rail Line at 9 in the morning. Secondly, after learning about the food prices in Admiralty, I've had to learn about different restaurants outside of Admiralty to save my wallet.

Jokes aside, studying law has been fun. Work smart, and remember to also claim your transportation subsidies!”

WONG King Yan Ignatius
LLM in International Economic Law

99

“My experience at CUHK LAW has been truly transformative. As it was my first time receiving systematic legal training, I was impressed by the well-organized and well-structured courses provided by CUHK. They greatly facilitated my understanding of the subjects. All the professors are experts in the corresponding field, always well-prepared for each lecture and willing to share their practical experience.”

“It's truly quite a good place to study law.”

XIE Liwen
LLM in International Economic Law

103

“When I look back my study career in CUHK LAW, the first sentence came to my mind is that Mr. Paul Schmidt said to me on the orientation day, ‘Law is a different animal so you should take it seriously, and practice makes perfect’.

I also remember that Professor Peter Rhodes always reminds us to read news everyday so as to gain commercial awareness. I think this habit benefits me a lot.

In the end, what I want to express is I really appreciate the time spent in CUHK LAW which shaped me to be a better person.”

YE Zhaorong
LLM in Common Law

104

“The LLM in Common Law Programme at CUHK helps me to systematically understand the development process and current status of the common law system. The professors at the CUHK LAW have a wealth of expertise and teaching experience, and are very friendly! CUHK LAW organizes a variety of lectures and activities outside of the curriculum to help enrich professional knowledge and make friends. Also, CUHK LAW has a united alumni resource. The law school alumni are willing to help, providing information to each other, which helped me a lot.”

YUEN Tsun Kit

“When I saw the introduction of LLM programme in Energy and Environmental Law, I knew it's the best programme for me. It is never too late to do anything so I quit my job to attend this programme, and I know I have done the right thing.”

ZHANG Jinsheng
LLM in International Economic Law

106

“The study in CUHK LAW is very rewarding with challenging knowledge, amiable professors, and enthusiastic friends. The courses here are taught with excitement taking us deep into the world of international economic law and teaching us how to be a lawyer. Another sensation stemming from contents and exams is pressure. To release the pressure, I go hiking with friends and feel the stability of nature in addition to earnestly absorbing knowledge. I feel that I will successfully cope with any task down the road because CUHK LAW teaches us to ‘Be confident.’”

ZHANG Keer
LLM in Common Law

107

“When I received the LLM offer from CUHK, I was hesitant, unsure if moving to Hong Kong for a new journey was the right decision. However, after arriving and embarking on my studies, I am convinced that it was the right choice. Professors not only make complex legal concepts accessible through clear language but are always enthusiastic about answering my questions, no matter how basic or naive they seem. Besides the inclusive and supportive academic environment, the vibrant city life of Hong Kong attracted me, enriching my experience at CUHK LAW and making it more precious.”

"My study experience at CUHK LAW has been incredibly rewarding and stimulating. Not only have I gained comprehensive knowledge on the law through pursuing both my JD and PCLL here, but I have also formed lifelong friendships with my fellow classmates. As someone who studied a different discipline for my undergraduate degree, the transition to law was initially challenging. However, the professors at CUHK LAW were exceptionally supportive, making the adjustment process much easier to cope with. I believe my education here equipped me with the necessary knowledge, skills, and connections for a successful legal career ahead."
