Recipients of CUHK LAW Scholarships and Prizes 2025

CAI Mingzhou
LLM in Chinese Business Law

"Before joining CUHK, I spent nearly three years as a legal professional at a large company. To enhance my overall capabilities and overcome career limitations, I chose to pursue further studies. During my time at CUHK LAW, I've developed a profound understanding of legal theories and practical applications. The diverse, cutting-edge, and challenging courses encourage students to examine issues not only from a legal standpoint but also from a business perspective. This approach has broadened my legal knowledge, sharpened my analytical skills, and cultivated my commercial thinking abilities. Studying at the CUHK has been a fulfilling journey."

CHAN Wai Lok Lucas
Juris Doctor

"There will be times when you want to give up. Trust the process, endeavour and you will make it there – Domine dirige nos."

CHAU Yik Him
Juris Doctor

"Studying at CUHK LAW has been a fruitful and rewarding experience. The rigorous curriculum has challenged me to think critically and analytically, sharpening my ability to navigate legal issues not only in the classroom but also in practical applications. The open environment at CUHK LAW has also fostered a strong sense of curiosity and self-directed learning, values I aim to carry into my professional journey. Overall, this experience has equipped me with the skills and mindset necessary for success academically and professionally. I eagerly look forward to my future experiences at CUHK."

CHEN Tingzi
LLM in Common Law

"Studying common law at CUHK LAW has been an inspiring and meaningful journey into the complexities of legal systems. Engaging coursework, lively discussions, and guidance from distinguished professors have deepened my understanding and sharpened my analytical skills. The supportive and diverse learning environment has enriched my academic and personal growth, and I am grateful for the opportunities to challenge myself and expand my horizons in the realm of law. Receiving the LLM Scholarship is a recognition of my hard work and a motivation to pursue excellence. I will continue to explore and make my own contribution to the legal community."

CHEUNG Wing Tung
LLM in International Economic Law

"I still remember the days when I struggled with whether to apply for the IEL programme or not. Now, I can confidently say that it was definitely the right decision. The programme has equipped me with practical legal skills in cross-border business transactions. It has also raised my awareness of international news, allowing me to connect current events to my studies. I truly enjoy my experience at CUHK LAW, where I've met friendly professors and classmates. I look forward to the rest of my journey here and the knowledge that lies ahead!"

CHIU Wing Tung
Juris Doctor

"My time at CUHK LAW has been incredibly enriching. The professors are knowledgeable, passionate, and genuinely helpful. I particularly appreciate the wide range of elective courses offered, especially those related to law and technology. These courses have broadened my understanding of the evolving legal landscape and prepared me for the challenges and opportunities ahead."

CHOU Hiu Lam
Juris Doctor

"I am very proud to have realized my childhood dream of earning a law degree! Juggling the roles of a full-time working mother to two boys (both born during this journey) and pursuing a JD as a part-time student has been incredibly demanding. Nonetheless, this experience has been deeply rewarding and enriching, and I cherish every moment of this study journey with no regrets. I aspire to leverage my legal knowledge to advance my career and make positive impacts on others."

CHOW Man Kwan
Juris Doctor

"I am deeply grateful to the exceptional teachers and my intellectual study mates at CUHK LAW. Your support and camaraderie have made my time here truly unforgettable. Thank you!"

CHU Anran
LLM in Chinese Business Law

"I am so glad to meet the knowledgeable, kind, and meticulous professors and friendly, smart, diligent, and motivated classmates in CUHK. This year will be my most unforgettable memory."

DENG Sichun
LLM in International Economic Law
20

"Studying in IEL Programme at CUHK LAW deepened my expertise in cross-border transactions, arbitration, and WTO frameworks. Professors here were exceptionally supportive, blending theoretical rigor with practical advice on legal practice. Their mentorship and real-world case analyses equipped me with skills essential to becoming a globally minded lawyer."

GU Xinyu
LLM in Chinese Business Law

"Studying Chinese Business Law at CUHK has been an incredibly enriching experience. CUHK LAW offers high-quality teaching materials and guidance from inspiring and knowledgeable professors, whose expertise has been truly transformative. While compulsory courses strengthen the foundation, elective ones broaden the horizons, combining the theoretical depth with practical application, which enables me to gain a more comprehensive understanding of business law. This journey has significantly enhanced my legal knowledge and professional skills, equipping me to go further as a legal professional in the future."

HO Chun Yin
LLM in International Economic Law
21

"My experience in CUHK LAW program has been transformative, combining intense academic rigor with valuable practical experience. Delving into various legal concepts and case studies honed my critical thinking abilities. The Faculty's encouragement fostered an environment of inquiry and exploration of intricate legal matters. Although my first degree was in business, this program has profoundly expanded my enthusiasm for law and prepared me to contribute meaningfully to the legal profession. I will keep on working hard, having fun and enjoying my study at CUHK LAW."

HU Yujie
LLM in International Economic Law

24

"Studying at CUHK has been a magical journey for me. The LLM programme at Graduate Law Centre gave me the chance to learn with incredible people from diverse backgrounds, gain insights from outstanding professors, and experience Hong Kong's vibrant culture. It's been one of the best times of my life. Although this journey was short, I believe it is not the end. I am truly grateful for this experience. Dream big, work hard, and may we all have a bright future ahead."

HUANG Xuewei
LLM in Chinese Business Law

"Initially apprehensive about undertaking courses conducted entirely in English, I devoted myself wholeheartedly to the coursework. With the guidance and patience of our professors, I gradually found my way in studying. I am excited to have the chance of studying at CUHK and am honored to sit with supportive peers listening to distinguished scholars. Maybe one year is a brief chapter in life's journey but the memories here will remain cherished throughout my lifetime."

IRACI Ricciardo Pino C.
LLM in Chinese Business Law

"At CUHK LAW, pursuing my LLM in Chinese Business Law is an enriching experience. The curriculum is rigorous and insightful, blending theoretical knowledge with practical applications. Engaging with esteemed professors and diverse peers has enriched my understanding of the complexities of Chinese law and its global implications. The multicultural environment fosters collaboration and critical thinking, preparing us for real-world challenges. Additionally, the university's resources and networking opportunities are invaluable in enhancing my academic and professional journey. I am grateful for the knowledge and skills I have acquired and am still acquiring through this rewarding experience."

JIANG Yuting
LLM in International Economic Law

26

"The LLM program in International Economic Law at The Chinese University of Hong Kong provided me with the invaluable opportunity to take practical courses under the guidance of knowledgeable and experienced professors. Collaborating with talented and friendly peers also enriched my learning experience. While the curriculum was challenging, it improved my analytical skills and deepened my expertise in international investment law, international commercial and investment arbitration, etc. I am grateful for the inspiring academic environment of CUHK LAW and its role in shaping my professional aspirations."

JIANG Zhifan
LLM in International Economic Law

27

"Follow the pace of your professor, take each class, don't worry about the final grade, and enjoy the process."

KANEVA Daria
Juris Doctor

"I entered the CUHK JD programme as a part-time student last September. Whilst it has been a challenge balancing a full course load on top of a full-time job in an Investment Bank, I have found great value in being able to draw connections between my work and my classes in the programme. Over the past few months, I have been able to apply in practice what I've been learning about, and vice versa, and to view the discussions in class through the lens of my professional experience. I very much appreciate the often spirited debates that take place in our classrooms and I'm excited to learn more and expand my understanding of the law."

KWOK Man Tak
Juris Doctor

28

"Pursuing my part-time JD has been a demanding yet fulfilling journey, as balancing work and academics required perseverance and unwavering passion for law. The past year, in particular, presented unexpected challenges with a difficult family situation, but the support from CUHK LAW members made all the difference. Their dedication to student success, insightful guidance, and commitment to academic excellence have greatly enriched my learning experience. This scholarship is not just a recognition of my hard work, but also testament to the quality of education I have received. I am deeply grateful and look forward to continuing my studies here."

LAI Chuan-chuan
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

"After spending several years in the workforce, I sought to expand my understanding of energy and environmental issues. Enrolling in the Energy and Environment Law LLM program at CUHK has provided me with a wonderful opportunity to explore this area further. The program offers valuable insights into current challenges and scholarly contributions. I am truly thankful to the professors for creating a stimulating and interactive learning environment. This experience has helped me discover new skills and perspectives, which I will apply as I advance in this field."

LAM Aidan Wilson
Juris Doctor

29

"My time studying with CUHK LAW has been brilliant. The breadth and depth of modules offered here provide an invaluable opportunity to organically develop a multi-faceted approach to legal practice, across a range of different perspectives. Alongside the first-rate teaching and collaboration with other talented minds, this ultimately results in a unique programme to take responsibility and shape one's own legal education. It is a culmination of these factors which truly nurtures a special learning experience."

LAU Ka Yu
Juris Doctor

31

"The JD programme has been an intellectually stimulating and rewarding experience for me. The professors and lecturers are experienced and passionate about legal education and the wide variety of courses ensure that students are well-equipped with relevant knowledge to embark on their legal careers. I am deeply grateful to all teachers and classmates for their encouragement and support."

LAW Lilia Chijing
Juris Doctor

32

"Receiving this scholarship holds significance for me, as it not only acknowledges my hard work but also reflects CUHK's commitment to recognizing excellence. Without the support and dedication of the professors, I wouldn't be able to achieve such an accomplishment. Therefore, I am deeply grateful and remain motivated to strive for excellence in my future studies. Thank you, CUHK LAW, for providing me with this platform."

LAW Wing Ka
LLM in International Economic Law

33

"In depth and in width, the programme has provided me with both comprehensive legal knowledge and critical thinking skills. The true strength of the course lies in its practicality, relevance, and integration of real-life examples. It has significantly contributed to my career and personal growth as a compliance professional — not only by enhancing my expertise but also by instilling the confidence to provide my company with well-informed and holistic advice. Thank you, professors and the Faculty Office for this wonderful programme."

LEE Chak Ming
Juris Doctor

34

"Transitioning to CUHK's JD program was both daunting and exhilarating. The leap from undergraduate studies demanded unprecedented discipline. Initially, I struggled with the intensity, having never studied so rigorously. Eventually, the challenge became a catalyst for growth: reading cases and learning legal principles honed my attention to detail and instilled in me a new perspective on society. Over time, I discovered patience and resilience I didn't know I possessed. CUHK LAW transformed academic pressure into purpose, equipping me not just with legal knowledge, but the tenacity to thrive in life and practice."

LEUNG Chun Hei
LLM in International Economic Law

35

"Returning to CUHK for the LLM in International Economic Law feels like coming home. This program is the perfect next step, providing me with the legal acumen to prepare me for advanced management positions. I am confident that the knowledge and legal skills I acquire at CUHK LAW will enable me to navigate complex legal challenges and contribute to strategic decision-making in future cross-border projects. Thank you, CUHK LAW, for this incredible opportunity!"

LEUNG Hang Faat
LLM in International Economic Law

36

"After practising as a qualified solicitor in Hong Kong for several years, I returned to CUHK to pursue the LLM in International Economic Law to stay updated on the latest legal developments, whereas the international economic landscape has grown increasingly complex due to geopolitical tensions and rising protectionism. The programme equipped me with valuable insights, knowledge and skills to solve related legal issues. With the support from professors who have extensive legal practice or research expertise, I gained a solid foundation which is highly relevant to my current role as an in-house lawyer in a bank engaged in cross-border transactions."

LI Huiling
LLM in Common Law

37

"I am very cherishing the opportunity to learn common law in CUHK. As for me, reading authoritative textbooks and landmark cases regularly to grasp fundamental principles is very important. Taking detailed notes also helps me organize complex information."

Moreover, discussing cases with peers offers me diverse perspectives and deepens my understanding. And don't shy away from asking professors for clarification.

Finally, practical application is key. Trying to analyze real-world legal issues using common law concepts also helps me a lot."

LI Jingda
Juris Doctor

38

"Studying law at CUHK has been a fulfilling and intellectually challenging experience. The rigorous curriculum integrates the essence of common law with local legal developments, deepening my understanding of Hong Kong's legal landscape. Intensive training in legal research, case analysis, and critical reasoning has significantly enhanced my practical analytical skills. Overall, CUHK LAW's systematic and professional education has laid a solid foundation for my legal career."

LI Leyi
LLM in International Economic Law

39

"My time at CUHK LAW has been impressive and meaningful, with rigorous academic training, various activities and practical insights in International Economic Law Programme. Engaging in courses and activities with peers from diverse backgrounds deepened my understanding of global trade frameworks, arbitration, and regulatory challenges. Courses like Transnational Legal Problems granted me a fresh perspective on transnational legal disputes and what lies behind them, which I haven't been exposed to in my undergraduate years. CUHK LAW's supportive community and intellectual vibrancy have not only fueled my academic growth but also inspired me to pursue a legal career in the future."

LI Xinyi
Juris Doctor

40

"I had a great experience at CUHK LAW, where I developed strong analytical and advocacy skills. The JD program challenged me to think critically and apply legal principles to real-world issues!"

LI Ziyou
Juris Doctor

41

"Learning in CUHK LAW is a meaningful experience in my life. Through challenging courses, I have promoted my ability to navigate the complexities of a global legal landscape. The faculty's emphasis on critical thinking and ethical advocacy has reshaped my understanding of law. This journey has been challenging, yet rewarding. The law is not merely a profession—it is a lifelong commitment to learning, service, and the pursuit of equity."

LIANG Shuang
LLM in International Economic Law

42

"My time at CUHK LAW has been a mosaic of inspiration. The IEL Programme's interdisciplinary approach deepened my understanding of global legal frameworks, while professors fostered an environment where theoretical rigor met practical relevance, guiding me to connect classroom insights with real-world challenges. Beyond academics, collaborative discussions with peers from diverse backgrounds enriched my perspective. This scholarship is not just an honor but a reminder of the responsibility to contribute meaningfully to the legal community. CUHK LAW has been a sanctuary for learning, reflection, and connection—I carry its lessons forward with gratitude."

LIAO Lok Sun Constance
Juris Doctor

43

"Each course at CUHK LAW has challenged and pushed me in ways I never anticipated, and I'm incredibly grateful to my professors for bringing the material to life. Receiving this prize is both a joy and an honour, motivating me to keep striving for personal and academic growth. I'm also thankful for the lifelong friends I've made along the way, who make every evening class even more exciting!"

LIN Chih Han
Juris Doctor

"It has been a fruitful journey, making lots of new friends, navigating my studies while exploring the legal profession in Hong Kong! Although it would be better if the market was better, haha!"

LIU Ruihan
LLM in Chinese Business Law

"Studying law at CUHK has been an enriching extension of my prior legal education in mainland China. Engaging with familiar topics—now examined through different frameworks in an English-taught environment. The shift to studying in English has added a dynamic layer to my understanding of legal principles. Beyond academics, I've built meaningful connections with many new friends. This experience has bridged my foundational knowledge of Chinese law with fresh perspectives, making my time in Hong Kong intellectually stimulating and personally fulfilling."

LIU Xuan
LLM in Common Law

48

"Passion is truly essential in the study of common law. It enables you to travel through hundreds of years of its history and to endure long days and nights in the Graduate Law Centre, the Lee Quo Wei Law Library and the Learning Garden. The study of case law, similar to the traditional Chinese concept of the unity of knowledge and action (知行合一), helps you understand abstruse legal rules through real-life cases, making learning both meaningful and rewarding. Thanks to the professors of the LLM programme, and I am deeply moved by their passion for law and teaching."

LONG Shiqing
Juris Doctor

49

"This is my sixth year studying with CUHK. To be very honest, CUHK has shaped my personality and my perspective of the adult world tremendously. Studying at CUHK allows me to connect closely with my ethnicity, considering this is a school established to achieve quality education for Chinese people in Hong Kong. Studying at CUHK has also exposed me to all the merits of western education, equipping me with the language, necessary social skills and perspectives to blend into the bigger world. Professors have been compassionate, empathetic and approachable. I have felt great warmth here."

LUO Lan
LLM in International Economic Law

51

"I truly enjoy my academic journey at CUHK, which has been an immensely rewarding experience. Through my coursework, I have not only acquired specialized knowledge but also developed the ability to independently explore new subjects and identify the most effective solutions to complex problems. Moreover, this journey has strengthened my resilience, equipping me with the determination and courage to embrace and overcome obstacles with confidence in the future."

LUO Yihao
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

"I am grateful for the opportunity to study at CUHK LAW, and I am honored to receive this scholarship. I extend my sincere gratitude to all my professors in the Energy and Environmental Law program for their invaluable guidance and mentorship. Their insights have deepened my understanding of the current legal landscape regarding the energy and environmental sector, providing me with access to the most prominent and innovative perspectives in the field. My time at CUHK LAW has significantly enhanced my legal literacy, and this unforgettable experience will inspire me to continue striving."

MA Wenjie
LLM in International Economic Law

54

"Studying law at CUHK has been a challenging yet rewarding journey. The rigorous curriculum, combined with insightful discussions and case studies, has deepened my understanding of legal principles and their real-world applications. Engaging with passionate professors and peers has sharpened my analytical and critical thinking skills. My time at CUHK LAW has been instrumental in shaping my legal mindset and preparing me for future challenges. I will forever cherish this experience."

MAI Shuangying
LLM in International Economic Law

55

"Studying at CUHK LAW has been an enriching experience, fostering both academic and personal growth. In my first semester, I had the opportunity to deliver presentations in two courses, allowing me to express myself while actively engaging in learning. It significantly enhanced my teamwork and time management skills, while also improving my public speaking abilities and boosting my confidence. I sincerely appreciate my professors for their invaluable guidance, expertise, and support. The GLC staff have also been incredibly kind and helpful. This journey has sharpened my skills and broadened my perspectives in a welcoming academic environment."

NG Ka May
Juris Doctor

57

"Studying law has been my lifelong dream, and pursuing a JD degree at CUHK LAW is one of the most significant decisions I have ever made. From thought-provoking discussions to unwavering support from our experienced professors, every moment here has fuelled my passion for the law. CUHK LAW has not only sharpened my legal acumen, but also nurtured me to be a future legal professional. Receiving the JD Gold Scholarship is an incredible honour, and I am deeply grateful for this opportunity. I look forward to becoming an outstanding lawyer and bringing meaningful impact in the legal field."

PAN Yiyang
LLM in International Economic Law

60

"My journey at CUHK LLM (E L Programme) has been both challenging and rewarding. Through in-depth systematic study of curriculums such as Law of International Business Transactions, Trans-National Legal Problems and International and Comparative IP Law, I've acquired critical analysis skills from cases, the ability to apply legal theory to practice and mindset to think like a lawyer for his/her clients. Each professor's impressive lectures and patient guidance have enhanced my independent legal thoughts. I am sincerely grateful to CUHK LAW for not only improving my professionalism but also inspiring my interest and passion for my future career in law."

PANG Justin Tsun Sang
Juris Doctor

61

"Studying at CUHK LAW has been an incredibly rewarding experience. The programme has equipped me with a strong foundation in legal knowledge while fostering critical thinking and practical application of the law. I've particularly appreciated learning from the distinguished faculty and collaborating with classmates from diverse backgrounds, which have broadened my perspective and enhanced my ability to approach legal challenges with creativity and confidence. I am grateful for the opportunities and support I've received so far, which have been instrumental in both my academic and personal growth. I look forward to continuing my studies at CUHK LAW."

PENG Shuxuan
Juris Doctor

62

"As a first-year part-time JD student, my law school journey has already exceeded expectations. Despite the challenges of balancing studies with other commitments, the supportive environment has made this transition manageable. Our professors are remarkably helpful and understanding of our unique part-time student needs. I particularly value learning from instructors who are active legal practitioners—they bring real-world context to our theoretical foundations, making complex concepts tangible. The diverse backgrounds of my classmates also provide unique insights during discussions. This journey is demanding but gradually becoming more navigable as I develop my legal thinking."

SHAO Yichen
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

64

"Just interact with professors and enjoy the class. What we understand is much more important than what we read or listen."

SHI Minyue
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

"One of the most effective strategies I use in my studies is keeping track of unfamiliar terms during class and researching them afterward. This helps me build a deeper understanding of the subject. If the professor provides recordings, I make sure to revisit the difficult parts and listen to them multiple times until I fully grasp the concepts. By actively engaging with the material and reinforcing my learning through review, I am able to strengthen my knowledge and improve my academic performance."

SHI Zhefei
LLM in International Economic Law

65

"During my one-year study at CUHK, I have gained not only richer legal practical experience but also an international legal vision. In the communication with my excellent peers and professors, I have clearer expectations and construction of future work plans, which will support me in the career pursuit."

SIN Wai Yin
LLM in Common Law

66

"Being a part-time student at CUHK LAW has been challenging yet deeply rewarding. The programme has equipped me with invaluable legal knowledge that I can readily apply to my career. I am sincerely grateful for the inspirational teaching and guidance from CUHK professors, which have been pivotal to my learning. Balancing work, studies, and personal life has never been easy, but this scholarship has made the effort worthwhile and given me immense motivation to continue striving for excellence in the programme."

SU Xin
Juris Doctor

67

"CUHK LAW has provided everything I could hope for in an exceptional law school. What I value most are the professors, who are not only distinguished scholars in their respective fields but also very approachable and supportive. The rigorous legal education I have received here has been both challenging and enriching, equipping me with the skills and knowledge essential for my future career."

SUN Hoi Yan
Juris Doctor

68

"It has been a privilege studying with my fellow part-time JD students. It is not easy but I enjoy the journey."

SUN Yuming
LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

"Studying at CUHK LAW has been a transformative journey. While legal studies are demanding, they sharpen my mind and broaden my perspectives. The challenges push me out of my comfort zone, and the dynamic environment fuels my passion for law. I'm grateful for this opportunity and excited about what's ahead! Like they say in Friends, "Welcome to the real world. It sucks, but you're gonna love it.""

TAN Tianle
LLM in International Economic Law

69

"During my time studying at GLC, I accepted systematic academic training in international economic law. Participating in group discussions and analysis of current affairs has honed my legal writing and critical thinking, while cultivating comparative perspectives in an international environment. I feel honoured to learn from each professor's rich practical experience and profound theoretical basis."

TSANG Man Ho
Juris Doctor

72

"The willingness to help from everyone, staff and peers alike, makes the JD experience wonderful. Go CUHK LAW!"

VENNEVOLD Mikkel Moerch
LLM in Chinese Business Law

"Being part of the CBL programme at CUHK LAW has been an incredible journey. Coming in with no background in Chinese law, I wasn't sure what to expect, but the programme has broadened my perspective - not just on business law but also on Chinese culture, norms, and trade practices. The learning experience has been both challenging and rewarding, thanks to insightful professors who make complex topics engaging. Being surrounded by classmates, mostly from the mainland, has made it even more enriching. I've gained valuable insights and skills, and I'm excited to apply them in the real world!"

WANG Jingzhe

Juris Doctor

73

"I truly appreciate the invaluable opportunity provided by CUHK LAW. My journey here has been fulfilling and meaningful. At the beginning of my studies, I often felt anxious and stressed, but I gradually learned to balance my studies and life, discovering my passion for learning law. The professors and instructors are incredibly knowledgeable and approachable, creating an inspiring environment that fosters critical thinking. The diverse perspectives of my peers further enrich our discussions, making each class dynamic and insightful. "Per ardua ad astra" – I will always remember this phrase."

WANG Shiwen

Juris Doctor

74

"Studying law at CUHK has been an incredibly enriching experience. The vibrant community fosters intellectual curiosity, where passionate peers constantly engage in stimulating discussions and challenge each other's perspectives. The collaborative environment, combined with world-class faculty, creates the perfect setting for academic and personal growth. Whether in seminars, moots, or casual debates, the enthusiasm for law is truly contagious."

WANG Xinyi

LLM in International Economic Law

"I'm deeply honored and genuinely surprised to receive this scholarship! It really brings a great surprise and huge gratification to me. I have learned a lot from professors who encouraged critical thinking and practice. The professors encouraged critical thinking and practice, which was very rewarding. Even though a lot of the time, I feel like I know nothing, I think it's because I'm entering the wider world. Thanks again for this learning experience at CUHK. I will continue to work hard."

WU Jingjing

LLM in Energy and Environmental Law

"My LLM journey in Energy and Environmental Law at CUHK LAW has been an enlightening experience. Through courses like International and Comparative Energy Law, Clean Technology Law, and Chinese Environmental Law, I gained a nuanced understanding of the legal frameworks driving global energy transition. My journey started with a bachelor's degree in Environmental Science, followed by two years at State Grid, where I gained practical experience in China's power sector. Now, by combining my technical background with legal knowledge, I can better analyze real-world issues and look forward to contributing to a greener future through law."

"As a non-local student studying for the Master of Laws in International Economic Law at CUHK, my first semester has been both challenging and rewarding. Courses about cross-border transactions and competition law have deepened my interest in international trade, combining theory with practical case studies. Working on collaborative case-study projects and engaging with peers from diverse backgrounds has broadened my perspective. Despite the initial difficulties of adjusting to fast-paced coursework, the program's professional development opportunities, such as networking events with major law firms and international organizations, have strengthened my ambition to pursue a legal career in global commerce."

"My experience at CUHK LAW has been intellectually challenging, enriched by rigorous coursework, engaging faculty, and collaborative peers. The academic environment nurtured my critical thinking and deepened my appreciation for the law. The diverse curriculum has broadened my understanding of legal principles and their practical applications. For instance, the Principles of Contract course provided me with a newfound perspective on commercial transactions, highlighting the intricacies of contractual agreements in business and the importance of party autonomy in our society. I look forward to continuing my studies and applying the legal knowledge to my professional work."
