Faculty of Law – The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Master of Laws Scholarship 2027-28

The Faculty of Law (the Faculty) of The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) is pleased to announce the "Master of Laws Scholarship", the aim of which is to seek academically outstanding local students to join our Master of Laws Programmes. Regulations governing the awards of scholarships are set out below.

Number and Value of the Award

The Faculty will award one scholarship, valued at HK$211,200, which covers the basic tuition fee.

Eligibility and Selection Criteria

All applicants are eligible for consideration for the Scholarship provided that they:

i. have applied for admission to one of the CUHK Master of Laws Programmes; and
ii. are local students (defined as those with the right of abode in Hong Kong).

The scholarship will be awarded based on academic merit and relevant professional experience, assessed on the basis of the applicant's application materials for admission. No separate application is necessary or permitted.

The Faculty reserves the right to adjust the value of the scholarship or not to make any award if an insufficient number of applicants meet the award criteria.

The Faculty's decision regarding the award of scholarship will be final, no appeal is available, and no discussion or correspondence will be entered into with any person regarding the award of scholarships.

Conditions of the Award

Selected applicants must fulfill the following conditions:

- commence their studies in the Master of Laws Programme in September 2027;
- take the normal study load in each term (12 units of courses and 6 units of courses for full-time and part-time students respectively);
- remain in good standing during their studies of the Master of Laws Programme; and
- receive no other scholarships or award during their studies of the Master of Laws Programme.

Announcement of results

The Faculty will inform the successful applicant of the scholarship award after an offer of admission to one of the Faculty's Master of Laws Programmes has been issued.

September 2026