

CFRED's 17th Commercial Law Seminar:

RENEWABLE ENERGY ARBITRATIONS - DISTINCTIVE FEATURES

by

Prof. Kaj Hober

*Professor, Uppsala University
Chairperson, Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce
Arbitrator, Gray's Inn, London*

16 October 2017, Monday, 4:00-5:30p.m.

The CUHK Graduate Law Centre, 2/F Bank of America Tower, 12 Harcourt Road, Central

In this seminar, Prof. Kaj Hober will discuss the recent arbitral disputes concerning solar energy subsidies, in particular the extent to which investment arbitration protects investors against retroactive changes of support schemes for renewable energy.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER:

Prof. Kaj Hober is professor of International Investment and Trade Law at Uppsala University where he is responsible for a one-year masters course in investment treaty arbitration. He also teaches general public international law, international trade law as well as Russian law. Prof. Hober has more than 30 years of experience from international arbitration as counsel and arbitrator, including treaty arbitrations and energy disputes. He has published several books and numerous articles on international arbitration. He is fluent in Russian.
